CHRISTOPHER ILITCH

PRESIDENT AND CEO, ILITCH HOLDINGS, INC.
CHAIRMAN AND CEO, DETROIT TIGERS

- As president and chief executive officer of Ilitch Holdings, Inc., Christopher Ilitch leads the Ilitch companies, spanning some of the world's best-known brands in food, sports and entertainment, and real estate development. Together, these businesses employ thousands of people, positively transform communities through entrepreneurship and philanthropy, and create unforgettable moments that bring individuals, families, and fans together.

- Over his 34-year career, Chris has remained steadfast in his vision that all Ilitch companies have a powerful capacity to improve lives. "We're proud to create opportunities for people across the globe through meaningful careers, small business ownership, community-minded development, and products and services that bring people joy."

- In addition to serving as President and CEO of Ilitch Holdings, Chris holds positions at each of the Ilitch companies, including as Chairman and CEO of the Detroit Tigers, as Governor, President and CEO of the Detroit Red Wings, and as a member of MotorCity Casino Hotel's management committee.

- Under Ilitch family ownership for three decades, the Detroit Tigers are considered one of the most iconic franchises in professional sports with a rich history dating back to 1901. With leadership and strategic oversight from Chris and Al Avila, Executive Vice President and General Manager, the Tigers have developed a young core of talent through the MLB Draft, international free agency, and player trades, while implementing a long-term strategy focused on sustainable success. The organization has an ongoing commitment to cutting-edge analytics and advanced technologies, making significant investments in tools aimed at maximizing player performance. Major investments and improvements have been made at the TigerTown Complex in Lakeland, including extensive remodel of Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium, surrounding practice fields, player facilities and team offices.

(Ilitch, Cont.)

- A respected and active voice in the game, Chris regularly attends Major League Baseball owner meetings, and has served on a variety of pivotal MLB committees, including: Executive, Competition, Long-Term Strategic, Audit, Ownership, and Legislative Affairs. On a personal level Chris has been passionate about baseball his entire life, serving as captain of his high school baseball team at Cranbrook and coach of his sons' youth baseball teams

- Chris is also the Governor, President and CEO of the Detroit Red Wings, a member of the Original Six and the National Hockey League's most storied American-based franchise. Steeped in a tradition of winning, and with some of the greatest players, coaches, and executives in league history, the Red Wings have captured 11 Stanley Cup titles.

- Chris is actively engaged in the community as Chairman of Ilitch Charities, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation. Ilitch companies, the organization's colleagues and owners, and Ilitch foundations have donated more than $230 million to worthy causes, have served over 5 million meals to those in need, and have donated thousands of volunteer hours in support of community programs and organizations.

- Beyond his work at the Ilitch companies and Ilitch Charities, Chris serves on the Board of Governors for the National Hockey League, board and executive committees for Business Leaders for Michigan, the Detroit Economic Club, and the Downtown Detroit Partnership. He is also an advisory board member of the Harvard Kennedy School Taubman Center for State and Local Government. He has served on host/hospitality committees for the NCAA Men's Frozen Four Hockey Championship (co-chair), the NCAA Final Four Men's Basketball Tournament, Super Bowl XL, and the Major League Baseball All-Star game (chair).

- A graduate with a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan, Chris is a proud father of three and resides with his wife Kelle and their children in metro Detroit.

CHRIS McGOWAN

PRESIDENT AND CEO, ILITCH SPORTS + ENTERTAINMENT

Enters his first season as President and CEO of Ilitch Sports + Entertainment (IS+E), after being named to the position on December 6, 2021. McGowan oversees business operations for the Detroit Red Wings, Detroit Tigers, The District Detroit and all sports and entertainment venues managed by the Ilitch organization. He also serves on the board of directors for 313 Presents, a joint venture interest between IS+E and Pistons Sports & Entertainment.

- McGowan arrived in Detroit after a successful nine-year tenure (2012-21) as Chief Executive Officer of Vulcan Sports & Entertainment, where he was responsible for business operations of VSE sports franchises and facilities, including the NBA's Portland Trail Blazers and the NFL's Seattle Seahawks...he also served as VSE representative for the ownership stake in the Seattle Sounders of Major League Soccer.

- Under McGowan's leadership, IS+E will produce cohesive and innovative strategies with the engagement of Detroit sports and entertainment fans, partners, and employees at the forefront.

- Along with leading business operations for the Red Wings, Tigers, and The District Detroit, IS+E continues to operate the award winning Little Caesars Arena, home of the Red Wings, Detroit Pistons, and world-class entertainment; Comerica Park, home to the Detroit Tigers; and the iconic Fox Theatre...it provides facility management services at Pine Knob Music Theatre, Meadow Brook Amphitheatre, and Michigan Lottery Amphitheatre at Freedom Hill.

"I'm thrilled about the opportunity to join the Ilitch organization and to lead Ilitch Sports and Entertainment. It's an exciting time for both the Red Wings and Tigers, and The District Detroit is a sports and entertainment epicenter unlike any other in the country. I look forward to getting started and helping bring memorable experiences to the great people of Detroit and beyond for years to come."

- Chris McGowan

- The 2012 Sport Business Journal "40 Under 40" honoree brings a wealth of experience to the Metro Detroit and state-wide communities, where he will be an active participant/member with the Business Leaders of Michigan and Detroit Sports Commission.

- Prior to being named Trail Blazers and Rose Quarter President & CEO, McGowan spent 16 years with Los Angeles-based Anschutz Entertainment Group (AEG), including a final stint as Chief Operating Officer of AEG Sports, before becoming one of the NBA's youngest CEOs...prior to moving to the Pacific Northwest, McGowan was a part of a Stanley Cup Championship run for the LA Kings; an MLS Cup title for the LA Galaxy and played an important role in opening the former Staples Center, one of the country's most iconic sports and entertainment venues.

(McGowan, Cont.)

- With the help of McGowan's leadership and vision, both the Trail Blazers and Rose Quarter organizations saw record-breaking growth...in 2019, the Rose Quarter hosted its highest number of shows and concerts...during the 2019-20 NBA season, the Trail Blazers set an organizational record for ticket sales revenue.

- After serving as President/Chief Executive Officer for the Trail Blazers from 2012-18, McGowan was elevated to the additional role of CEO of Vulcan Sports & Entertainment in 2018 where his responsibilities expanded further into the professional sports franchises and entertainment properties in the Vulcan portfolio...his new role included managing a cross-functional executive team in both Portland and Seattle in leading those business operations.

- In 2017, McGowan was honored as one of the "Business Executives of the Year" by the Portland Business Journal...locally, he was active in the Portland community and served as a board member of the Doernbecher Children's Hospital Foundation, Oregon Sports Authority, Oregon Business Council and Trail Blazers Foundation.

- In August 2013, McGowan and his team negotiated a community partnership with Moda Health that included naming rights to Moda Center...together, Moda and the Trail Blazers have energized Portland's hub for sports and entertainment, creating an urban showcase for healthy, active living.

- McGowan piloted major venue and technological improvements to the Rose Quarter campus and Trail Blazers Practice Facility during his tenure, including $16 million in capital improvements. He also led a business restructuring to self-operate Moda Center, Veterans Memorial Coliseum and the Rose Quarter campus in 2013.

- Through a partnership with Live Nation and event ticketing systems under Ticketmaster, McGowan drove an unprecedented variety of events to the Rose Quarter, including Paul McCartney, Justin Timberlake, Elton John, Katy Perry, Garth Brooks, Taylor Swift, Bruno Mars, Billy Joel, the 2019 NCAA Women's Regional Basketball Tournament, the 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and PK80 Invitational – a groundbreaking college basketball tournament featuring 16 of the country's top teams in a double-bracket format honoring Nike Co-Founder Phil Knight's 80th birthday in 2017.

- McGowan earned his bachelor's degree in International Relations from the University of Delaware in 1996, where he was captain of the soccer team. Chris and his wife, Susan, reside in the Metro Detroit area, and have two sons, Ryan and Kyle.

AL AVILA

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

The first Cuban-born General Manager in MLB history, Avila enters his 31st season in professional baseball, 22nd season with the Tigers and seventh full season overseeing the day-to-day baseball operations of the organization. Was named to his current position on August 4, 2015.

- Since Avila became the club's top baseball operations official, the Tigers have built a talented roster centered around a young core of players, supplemented by impact free agent signings and veteran players acquired via trade.

- In 2021, the ballclub overcame a slow 9-24 record to start its 2021 season, posting a 68-61 (.527) record over the rest of its schedule...the Tigers had a 28-win improvement from 2019 to 2021 (MLB's most recent full seasons), resulting in the third-largest increase in win percentage for any MLB team over that span (.292 in 2019 to .475 in 2021)...another signal of on-field progress is in team ERA, which dropped from 5.63 in 2020 to 4.32 in 2021 - the third-best improvement from any team in the Major Leagues over that span.
- Has made significant moves to shape the current roster since taking over as general manager... this includes hiring World Series Championship manager A.J. Hinch and acquiring numerous Major League players via trade (Tucker Barnhart, Jeimer Candelario, Eric Haase, Alex Lange, Austin Meadows, Jake Rogers), free agency (Javier Báez, Andrew Chafin, Robbie Grossman, Eduardo Rodriguez, Jonathan Schoop), MLB Draft (Matt Manning, Casey Mize, Tarik Skubal) and Rule 5 Draft (Akil Baddoo, Rony García, Victor Reyes)...also oversaw the development of multiple MLB All-Stars, including Gregory Soto (2021), Shane Greene (2019), Joe Jiménez (2018) and Michael Fulmer (2017).

- Though multiple top prospects have recently made their Major League debuts, the Tigers player development system enters 2022 ranked No. 6 among all organizations by Baseball America...according to MLB Pipeline, the Tigers have two of the game's top five prospects (Spencer Torkelson at No. 4 and Riley Greene at No. 5) and three in the top 40 (also, Jackson Jobe at No. 40).
- In pursuit of sustainable success, Avila has directed upgraded staffing and infrastructure in several areas of the club's baseball operations, including expanding staffing in the analytics, scouting and sport science/performance departments...also oversaw significant facility/technology upgrades at all facilities (including ballparks and dormitories) that are used by Tigers Minor Leaguers...Avila directed a re-organization of the club's player development system, which enters 2022 with 29 new hires and 15 internal promotions.

(Avila, Cont.)

- Initially joined the Tigers as Vice President/Assistant General Manager, being named to the position on April 15, 2002, a supporting role in leading the club's day-to-day baseball operations.

- Prior to his tenure in Detroit, Avila spent most of his career in professional baseball with the Florida Marlins, including serving as the Interim General Manager (2001-02 off-season), Assistant General Manager (2001), Director of Scouting (1998-2001), Director of Latin American Operations (1993-98) and Assistant Director of Latin American Operations (1992-93).

- Under Avila's guidance, the Marlins drafted a pair of future MLB All-Stars at the top of the MLB Draft in 1999 and 2000: Josh Beckett at No. 2 overall in 1999 and Adrián González No. 1 overall in 2000...the pair combined to play nearly three decades in the Major Leagues, post a total bWAR of 79.2 and earn eight trips to the MLB All-Star Game...Beckett also earned MVP honors in the 2003 World Series, which was won by the Marlins.

- On the international front, Avila led the 1999 signing of Miguel Cabrera, who has gone on to win the American League Triple Crown in 2012, two AL MVP awards (2012-13), 11 MLB All-Star nods and in 2021 became the 28th member of the 500 Home Run Club...Avila was also instrumental in the signing and development of RHP Liván Hernández (1997 World Series MVP), 2B Luis Castillo, SS Álex González and SS Edgar Rentería, who all would go on to be named MLB All-Stars during their careers.

- As the Director of Scouting for the Marlins, Avila was responsible for the club's scouting efforts on both the national and international levels, and overseeing the development of those players at baseball academies in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela.

- Prior to joining the Marlins, Avila served as the Director of Athletics and head baseball coach at St. Thomas (FL) University from 1989-92...he led the team to a No. 3 ranking in the 1992 NAIA poll and won the Florida Sun Conference Championship in 1991 and 1992...Avila was named the 1991 Florida Sun Conference Coach of the Year and was inducted into the St. Thomas University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2016.

- Served as General Manager of the Daytona Beach Admirals of the Florida State League in 1987 and worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers organization in 1986.

- A graduate of Hialeah High School, Avila earned a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in 1986…the former catcher was signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

- Inducted into the Professional Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame in 2012.

- He and his wife, Yamile, have three children: sons, Alexander and Alan, and daughter, Annelisa Marie, and four grandchildren, Ambrose, Asher, Avery and Zoey.

- Is the son of Ralph Avila, a former Vice President of the Los Angeles Dodgers, and Senior Scouting Advisor in the Dominican Republic...he was named 2006 International Scout of the Year by Major League Baseball.

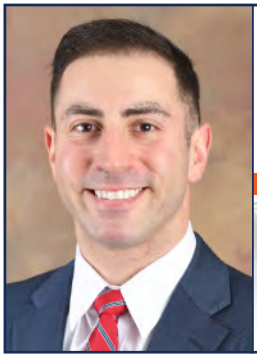

DAVID CHADD

VICE PRESIDENT, ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Enters his 18th season with the Tigers and the seventh full season in his current role after being named a Vice President and Assistant General Manager on August 7, 2015. Joined the organization on November 4, 2004 as Vice President, Amateur Scouting.

- Assists Al Avila with organizational priorities and long-term planning, including scouting and advising on top prospects in the amateur draft.
- Guided the club in its selections of Alex Avila, Nicholas Castellanos, Chad Green, Corey Knebel, James McCann, Andrew Miller, Rick Porcello, Drew Smyly and Devon Travis during his tenure as Vice President, Amateur Scouting.
- Recognized by Baseball America as the top scouting director of the 2000s.
- Prior to joining the Tigers, Chadd spent three seasons as the Director of Amateur Scouting for the Boston Red Sox, signing Jon Lester, Jonathan Papelbon and 2008 American League Most Valuable Player Dustin Pedroia.
- Spent eight seasons (1994-2001) in the Florida Marlins scouting department, last serving as the Director of Scouting during the 2001 season...joined the Marlins as an area scout covering the Midwest in 1994, before being promoted to Midwest crosschecker in 1998.
- Chadd spent four years as an assistant coach with Kansas State University (1992-93) and Wichita State University (1990-91).
- Played outfield for Kansas State University and was named an All-American in 1988.
- Earned a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in athletic administration from Wichita State University.
- Inducted into the Kansas Baseball Hall of Fame on January 30, 2010.
- He and his wife, Janet, reside in Wichita, Kansas and have four children, Drew, Nate, Haley and Hannah.

SAM MENZIN

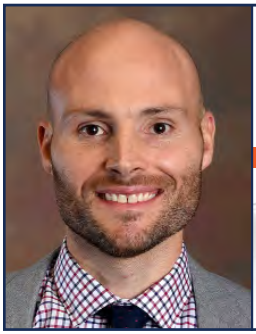

VICE PRESIDENT, ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Enters his 10th full season in the Tigers organization and first as Vice President/Assistant General Manager after being named to the role on August 31, 2021.

- Reporting directly to the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager, he assists with leading the organization's day-to-day Major League operations, including player procurement, contract negotiations, roster construction, salary arbitration, payroll projections, and compliance with MLB rules and the CBA.

(Menzin, Cont.)

- Oversees the Major League Clubhouse, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, and Nutrition departments.
- Assists the VP, Player Personnel regarding all aspects of the Pro Scouting department.
- Advises Player Development on philosophy, direction, best practices, and staffing.
- Prior to his current role, he served as the club's Director of Baseball Operations and Professional Scouting (2017-21), Director of Baseball Operations (2015-17), Baseball Operations Analyst and Coordinator of Baseball Operations (2013-15). Menzin joined the Tigers organization in June, 2012 as a Baseball Operations Intern.

- As director of the department, has been involved in scouting and signing of numerous big league players, including these players who appeared in the Major Leagues in 2021: Willy Adames, Anthony Castro, Harold Castro, Avisaíl García, Hernán Pérez, Gregory Soto and Eugenio Suárez.
- From that list, Gregory Soto emerged as a high-leverage bullpen arm who earned a spot on the All-Star roster in 2021...there have been 38 players signed as international amateur free agents in the last 15 years who have made it to at least one of the last four All-Star Games (2017-19, 2021)...of all Major League clubs, only St. Louis (4), Detroit (3) and New York (AL) (3) initially signed more than two players from that list of 38.
- Several prospects who were signed during Moore's tenure are on the MLB Pipeline top-30 Tigers prospects list entering the 2022 season, including: Roberto Campos (No. 8), Cristian Santana (9), Abel Bastidas (19), Adinso Reyes (24), Jose De La Cruz (29).
- Joined the Tigers organization on November 30, 2005 as the Assistant Director of Professional and International Scouting...prior to joining the Tigers organization, Moore spent the previous 11 seasons with the Boston Red Sox, including four years as the Assistant Director of Professional and International Scouting and four years as the Assistant Director of Scouting.
- Began his baseball career in February, 1995 as an intern in the Boston Red Sox baseball operations department...in May of that year he took over the Major League video coordinator duties before joining the club full time as a baseball operations assistant in January, 1996.
- A 1995 graduate from Springfield College, Moore lives in Reading, MA with his wife, Kerri, sons, William and Timothy, and daughter, Emma.

MIGUEL GARCIA

Director, Latin American Operations

- Entering his 38th season in professional baseball and his 17th season with the Tigers after joining the organization on November 30, 2005.
- Garcia is responsible for all aspects of the club's baseball operations efforts in Venezuela and also responsible for the supervision of scouting efforts in Latin America and other special assignments.
- Among the players signed during his tenure are Sandy Baez, Harold Castro, Avisaíl García, Dixon Machado, Melvin Mercedes, Steven Moya, Jose Ortega, Hernán Pérez, Bruce Rondón, Gregory Soto and Eugenio Suárez, who all have seen action at the Major League level with the Tigers...additionally, Garcia had a hand in signing Willy Adames, who reached the Major Leagues in 2018 with Tampa Bay.
- Prior to joining the Tigers organization, Garcia spent the previous four seasons as the Coordinator of Latin American Scouting for the Boston Red Sox and served as a scout and supervisor of operations in Venezuela with the Florida Marlins organization from 1997-2001.
- A lefthanded pitcher, Garcia was signed by the California Angels as a non-drafted free agent in 1984 and made his Major League debut with the club in 1987...in addition to his time with the Angels in 1987, Garcia saw action with the Pittsburgh Pirates in three seasons (1987-89).
- Garcia assisted current Tigers Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Al Avila with Florida's signing of Miguel Cabrera.
- Garcia and his wife, Adriana, reside in Wesley Chapel, FL, with their daughters, Mariangelica and Anacorina.

MANAGER & COACHING STAFF

14 A.J. HINCH
MANAGER

BORN: MAY 15, 1974 HOMETOWN: MIDWEST CITY, OK

Opening Day Age: 47
Former Position: Catcher
Managerial Experience: Eight Seasons - Arizona (2), Houston (5), Detroit (1)
Postseason Highlights: WS Championship (2017), AL Pennant (2019)

On October 30, 2020, A.J. Hinch was named the 39th manager in Detroit Tigers history. Hinch has one of the most diverse range of experiences of any manager in baseball, including having success in roles as a player, manager and front office executive since breaking into professional baseball in 1997.

- Enters the 2022 campaign with a 647-537 career managerial record after stints with Arizona (2009-10) Houston (2015-19) and Detroit (2021-present)...entering the 2022 campaign, he ranks second among active Major League managers (min. eight seasons) in career win percentage at .546.
- In his first season as Tigers manager, the club overcame a slow 9-24 record to start its 2021 season, posting a 68-61 (.527) record over the rest of its schedule, which was the eighth-best winning percentange in the American League over that span...the Tigers had a 28-win improvement from 2019 to 2021 (MLB's most recent full seasons), resulting in the third-largest increase in win percentage for any MLB team over that span (.292 in 2019 to .475 in 2021).
- Did not manage during the 2020 season while serving a one-year suspension from Major League Baseball.
- Under his leadership in Houston, his most recent managerial stint prior to Detroit, the Astros reached the playoffs four times in five seasons, including in his first year as manager in 2015...that playoff appearance snapped a nine-year drought for Houston, posting a 16-win improvement from the club's record the year before.
- En route to a franchise-record .594 winning percentage during his time with the Astros, Hinch led the club to 100-plus wins in three-straight seasons (2017-19), a World Series Championship (2017) and American League Pennant (2019).
- For his efforts during the 2017 season, he was named the Baseball America Manager of the Year and Esurance MLB Award as Major League Baseball's Best Manager...following his first season in Houston in 2015, he finished second in voting for 2015 BBWAA American League Manager of the Year Award.
- Managed the 2018 American League All-Star Team to a 10-inning, 8-6 victory at Nationals Park in Washington, D.C.
- His first managerial post was with Arizona, serving in the role for parts of the 2009 and 2010 seasons... he was 34 years-old at the time of his appointment, the youngest manager in the Major Leagues.
- Between his time as manager in Arizona and Houston (2011-14) he worked in San Diego's front office, serving as Vice President of Scouting and Assistant General Manager...in that role he oversaw all aspects of the club's professional scouting and medical departments, while assisting with the club's roster composition, player acquisitions, talent evaluation and contract negotiations.
- Had additional front office experience with Arizona, where he worked from 2005-09 following his retirement as a player...held multiple roles including Director of Player Development until being named the club's field manager in 2009.
- Had a seven-year Major League playing career, suiting up for 350 games between Oakland (1998-2000), Kansas City (2001-02), Detroit (2003) and Philadelphia (2004)...over his career, the catcher hit .219/.280/.356 with 28 doubles, 32 home runs and 112 RBI.
- During his lone season in Detroit, Hinch played for then-manager and current Special Assistant to the General Manager, Alan Trammell, batting .203 (15x74) with three homers and 11 RBI over 27 games.
- Was drafted three times as an amateur, eventually signing with Oakland after being selected in the third round of the 1996 MLB Draft.
- Played collegiately at Stanford University, where he established himself as one of the best catchers in the country...was a three-time All-American and All-Pac-10 team selection, and two-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, while leading the Cardinal to the College World Series in 1996 and finishing the season as a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award.
- During his time in Palo Alto, Hinch earned his Bachelor of Science in psychology and was a member of the 1996 bronze medal-winning U.S. Olympic Baseball Team.

Enters his second season on the Tigers coaching staff as the club's hitting coach, after serving as the assistant hitting coach for the Chicago White Sox during the 2020 season.

- Has over 21 years of experience as a professional hitting coach between 1999 and present, recently helping to develop and grow some of the sport's most successful players.
- In his first season in Detroit, the Tigers led the Majors with 37 triples and had several standout offensive performers, including Robbie Grossman posting the first 20 double, 20 stolen base season by a Tiger since Curtis Granderson in 2009, Jeimer Candelario tying for the American League lead in doubles with 42 and Akil Baddoo and Eric Haase being among the best rookies in the American League.
- Working with White Sox hitters during the 2020 season, the club posted one of the best offensive campaigns in recent memory...as a team they ranked among the American League leaders in many offensive categories, including: first in slugging percentage (.453) and average fly ball distance (328.6 feet), second in batting average (.261), and tied for third in extra-base hits (196)...slugger José Abreu also earned AL Most Valuable Player honors following the season.
- Spent 2019 with Triple A Oklahoma City as hitting coach, working closely with young Dodgers talent such as top prospect Gavin Lux, who was Baseball America's Minor League Player of the Year that season...the club also ranked third in the Pacific Coast League in walks (573).
- Was the Major League hitting coach for Baltimore from 2015-18...during his tenure with the Orioles, the club had the third-highest home run total (890) of any in the Major Leagues, while also ranking eighth in total bases (9,367) and ninth in slugging percentage (.423)...Baltimore led baseball with 253 homers in 2016, and seven Orioles hit 20-plus longballs in 2017.

- Spent eight seasons (2007-14) in the Texas organization as a hitting instructor, including time as the Major League hitting coach from June of 2011 through the end of the 2012 season...in 2011, the Rangers led the big leagues in batting average (.283), and won the American League pennant...Texas led baseball in runs scored (808) and ranked second in the AL in batting average (.272) during the 2012 campaign.
- Prior to joining the Major League staff with the Rangers, he worked as a hitting coach in the club's Minor League system from 2007-11, including time with Double A Frisco (2007-08), Triple A Oklahoma City (2009-10) and Triple A Round Rock (2011, 13)...began his coaching career in the Arizona system from 1999-2004.
- The former third baseman played in parts of four seasons in the Major Leagues, spending time with Texas (1989-1990), San Diego (1991) and St. Louis (1994)...posted a combined .215/.281/.310 slashline with eight homers and 41 RBI over 167 career games.
- Originally drafted by Texas in the third round of the 1987 MLB Draft out of the University of Texas...was an All-American with the Longhorns, hitting .361 with 15 home runs as a junior in 1987...his .351 career batting average ranks as the 13th highest in school history.
- Serves on the Board of Directors for Diamond Dreams, a non-profit organization that honors the memory of his brother, Mike, by promoting safety in the game of baseball and providing support to members of the baseball community in need...Mike Coolbaugh died while coaching first base for the Tulsa Drillers in July of 2007.

52 CHRIS FETTER
PITCHING COACH

BORN: DECEMBER 23, 1985 HOMETOWN: CARMEL, IN

Opening Day Age: 36
Former Position: Righthanded Pitcher
Years as Professional Player: 4 (2009-2012)

Enters his second season on the Tigers coaching staff, serving as pitching coach. Though he is one of the youngest coaches in the Major Leagues, Fetter has a wealth of experience across baseball, including most recently as the pitching coach at the University of Michigan for three seasons (2018-20).

- Made an immediate impact on the Tigers pitching staff in his first season in 2021, as the team's ERA dropped from 5.63 in 2020 to 4.32 in 2021, the third-best improvement from any team in the Major Leagues over that span...among the many individual accomplishments from 2021, Fetter helped lead Casey Mize to the most quality starts by any Major League rookie, Tarik Skubal to establish a new franchise rookie strikeout record, Gregory Soto to earn his first career All-Star Game appearance and a no-hitter from Spencer Turnbull.
- Established as one of the brightest pitching minds in college baseball, he helped the Wolverines identify and develop elite pitchers, aiding the team's run to the College World Series Finals in 2019...during that 2019 run, his staff was ranked 10th in the nation and led the Big Ten Conference with a 3.46 ERA (635.0IP/344ER), while finishing seventh in the nation with just 7.44 hits allowed per game.
- Under his tutelage at Michigan, his alma mater, the team had four pitchers drafted in the top three rounds of the 2019, 2020 and 2021 MLB Drafts.
- Prior to his time with the Wolverines, he was the Minor League pitching coordinator with the Dodgers (2016-17), pitching coach at Ball State University (2016-17), professional scout with the Angels (2013-15) and assistant pitching coach for Double A San Antonio (2013).
- He and Tigers manager A.J. Hinch crossed paths while both were in the San Diego organization, where Fetter was a righthanded pitcher from 2009-12 and Hinch was the Vice President of Scouting and Assistant General Manager from 2011-14.
- During his four seasons in professional baseball as a player, he posted a combined 6-11 record and 3.56 ERA (179.2IP/71ER) at the Single A level, striking out 162 and walking just 49.
- He was a standout player at Michigan, earning All-Big Ten honors three times and helping the team to three conference championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances...his 332.1 innings pitched ranks as the highest total in school history, while his 28 career wins and 281 career strikeouts each rank as the third-highest.
- Following his college career he was drafted in the ninth round of the MLB Draft by San Diego.

26 GEORGE LOMBARD

BENCH COACH

BORN: SEPTEMBER 14, 1975 HOMETOWN: ATLANTA, GA

Opening Day Age: 46
Former Position: Outfielder
Years as Professional Player: 16 (1994-2009)

Lombard enters his second season on the Tigers coaching staff as bench coach, after serving as the first base coach with the Dodgers for the previous five years. Lombard also coaches Detroit's outfielders as well as the club's baserunners. His transition to coaching came following a 16-year playing career in professional baseball.

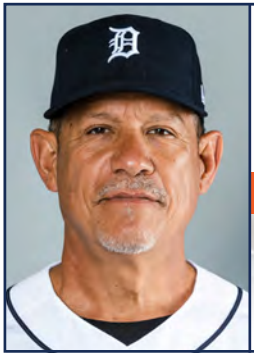

- His 2020 campaign served as a career highlight, helping the Dodgers to a World Series championship... also coached the club's baserunners and outfielders, helping a number of elite players develop and excel at the Major League level.
- Prior to his time with the Dodgers he spent the 2015 season as Atlanta's Minor League field coordinator, preceded by parts of six seasons working in the Red Sox player development system.
- With Boston he served three years as the organization's Minor League outfield and baserunning coordinator (2013-15), two as the manager of the Gulf Coast League Red Sox (2011-12) and one as the hitting coach for Single A Lowell (2010)...as manager of the GCL Red Sox his teams went 59-61, and the 2012 club reached the GCL finals.
- Prior to becoming a coach he played six seasons in the Major Leagues, including three seasons with Atlanta (1998-2000) and one each with Detroit (2002), Tampa Bay (2003) and Washington (2006)...over his career in the big leagues he batted .281/.340/.621, knocking 12 doubles, three triples and eight home runs, while driving in 21 RBI and stealing 23 bases.
- During his 2002 campaign with the Tigers he established career highs with 72 games played, 58 hits, 11 doubles, three triples, five homers and 13 RBI.
- Played 1,213 Minor League games in his career, combining to post a .262/.355/.437 slashline, with 212 doubles, 55 triples, 143 home runs and 540 RBI...went 318-for-408 in stolen base attempts over that span, and committed just three errors in 2,015.1 innings played to post a .994 fielding percentage.
- Was an All-American high school running back who signed to play football and baseball at the University of Georgia before opting to begin his professional baseball career...was drafted by Atlanta in the second round of the 1994 MLB Draft out of The Lovett School (GA).
- Graduated from the University of Phoenix with a bachelor's degree in psychology.
- His late mother, Posy, was a civil rights activist who marched alongside Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., among many other courageous and selfless acts to promote equality.

BORN: JANUARY 5, 1965 HOMETOWN: SANTURCE, PR

Opening Day Age: 57
Former Position: Pitcher
Years as Professional Player: 9 (1983-1990, 1998)

Entering his second season on the Tigers Major League coaching staff, Nieves begins his fourth season in the organization. With vast experience coaching at the Major and Minor League levels, Nieves works hand-in-hand with pitching coach Chris Fetter to maximize the potential of the club's pitchers.

- In his first season as the Tigers' assistant pitching coach in 2021, the team's ERA dropped from 5.63 in 2020 to 4.32 in 2021, the third-best improvement from any team in the Major Leagues over that span.
- Was named the pitching coach at Triple A Toledo for 2019-20, but spent 2020 working at the club's alternate training site due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Prior to joining the Tigers organization he spent three seasons on the Major League staff with Miami, serving as pitching coach...was also the Major League pitching coach with Boston for three seasons (2013-15) and bullpen coach with the White Sox for five seasons (1992-1996).
- Spent nine seasons as a Minor League coach in the White Sox system (1999-2007) and five seasons in the Yankees system (1992-1996).
- Originally signed by Milwaukee in 1983, he later became the second-youngest player in Major League history to throw a no-hitter, completing the feat on April 15, 1987 against Baltimore...over three seasons with the Brewers he posted a combined 32-25 record and 4.71 ERA (490.2IP/257ER), striking out 352 and walking 227.
- Prior to signing with Milwaukee he played at Avon Old Farms High School (CT), where he posted a career 19-1 record with a 1.05 ERA.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Spent the entire 2021 season in the Majors, appearing in a career-high 41 games, including 15 starts.

- Continued to stand out with his control, allowing 28 walks in 106.1 innings pitched...since his big league debut on July 3, 2019, he ranks second among active pitchers (min. 190.0 innings pitched) in fewest walks allowed (42) and seventh in walk rate (5.2%).
- Picked up his first win of the season on July 4 vs. Chicago (AL), throwing 2.1 scoreless innings with three strikeouts.
- Notched his second win on August 7 at Cleveland, throwing 5.1 scoreless innings with four hits allowed and four strikeouts...marked his first win as a starting pitcher since September 16, 2019 vs. Baltimore.
- Tied the longest start of his career on August 20 at Toronto, tossing 7.0 innings and allowing one run on four hits with two walks and six strikeouts.
- Made seven appearances, including six starts, during September/October, compiling a 0-2 record with a 2.56 ERA (31.2IP/9ER) and 26 strikeouts.

Played his first full Major League season in 2020, working primarily out of the bullpen...appeared in 14 games and made a pair of starts.

- Posted a combined 2-3 record and 3.96 ERA (36.1IP/16ER) over his 14 outings, on 39 hits and nine walks, while striking out 34…of his 12 relief appearances, 11 went for multiple innings, over which he was 2-2 with a 3.18 ERA (28.1IP/10ER), walking six and striking out 28.
- Had a historic outing in the first game of the doubleheader on August 2 vs. Cincinnati, tossing 3.2 hitless innings of relief, striking out nine consecutive batters and 10 total…that mark of nine-straight punchouts was the longest such stretch in an outing for a reliever in Major League history, tied an American League record (last, Doug Fister, September 27, 2012 vs. Kansas City) and fell one shy of the Major League record of 10 (Tom Seaver, April 22, 1970 vs, San Diego)…the outing marked the first double-digit punchout performance of his career, topping his previous career high of nine (July 27, 2019 at Seattle).

Saw the first Major League action of his career in 2019, pitching in 13 games, including eight starts, with Detroit...also pitched in 20 games, including 16 starts, with Triple A Toledo.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Began the 2021 season with the Cubs before being traded to the Mets at the trade deadline.

- Was one of four Major Leaguers to finish the season with at least 31 home runs, 87 RBI and 18 steals, joining Shohei Ohtani, José Ramirez and Fernando Tatis Jr.
- Ranked ninth in the National League with 18 stolen bases.
- Due to stats from New York (NL)'s resumed suspended game on August 31 counting for April 11, Elias Sports Bureau notes that he is the second player since 1920 when RBI became an official stat to be credited with a RBI for two teams on the same date (also, Cliff Johnson, May 28, 1990 for Cleveland and Chicago (NL))...Johnson is also the only other player since 1900 to score a run for two teams on the same date...Báez is credited with two runs and two RBI on April 11, one apiece for both the Mets and Cubs.
- Launched a grand slam against New York (NL) on April 21.
- Belted a pair of homers on May 31 vs. San Diego...also had two homers on July 6 vs. Philadelphia.
- Recorded his fifth career walk-off hit on July 26 vs. Cincinnati, a pinch-hit, bases-loaded RBI single.
- Hit a two-run home run in his Mets debut on July 31 vs. Cincinnati, making him the 30th player in franchise history to homer in his first game with the team.
- On the injured list from August 12-22 with a lumbar spine muscle strain.
- Reached base safely in a career-high 23 straight games from September 5-30 and had a 13-game hitting streak from September 14-29, the second longest of his career.
- Posted his best month of the season in September, hitting .361/.441/.577 with six doubles, five home runs and 14 RBI...ranked fifth in the majors in batting average and ninth in on-base percentage.

Played in all but one of the Cubs 60 games during the shortened 2020 season.

- Won his first career Rawlings Gold Glove Award as a shortstop...led NL shortstops with four outs above average and was second with seven defensive runs saved.
- Had a pair of multi-homer games during the season, on July 28 at Cincinnati and August 24 at Detroit... became just the fourth Cubs shortstop since 1901 to record multiple games with at least nine total bases in a season, joining Ray Smalley in 1950, Ernie Banks (five times) and Starlin Castro in 2014.
- Recorded a walk-off single in the 11th inning on August 2 vs. Pittsburgh and a game-winning single in the 10th inning on September 16 vs. Cleveland.
- Played in both games of the Cubs NL Wild Card Series vs. Miami, going 1x8.

Voted a starter in the All-Star Game for the second straight season in 2019, starting at shortstop for the National League.

- Had a team-best .333 (38x114) batting average with runners in scoring position, including a .408 (20x49) average with RISP and two outs.
- Recorded a .973 fielding percentage (15E/546TC) in 129 games at shortstop...committed just two errors in 153 total chances in his final 38 games in the field from July 20-September 1.
- Homered twice on Opening Day at Texas, becoming the seventh Cub ever to hit multiple homers in the team's first game, and the first since Corey Patterson in 2003...was just the fifth Cubs shortstop to homer on Opening Day and the first since Rey Sanchez on April 1, 1996 vs. San Diego.
- Finished the season-opening, three-game series at Texas with six hits, five runs, two homers, six RBI and two stolen bases, becoming just the third Cub in the last 100 years to collect those totals in a three-game series, joining Joe Marty in 1937 vs. Philadelphia and Andre Dawson in 1987 against Houston.
- Finished March/April with nine home runs, the second-most by a Cub before May, surpassed only by Alfonso Soriano's 10 homers prior to May in 2011.
- Posted a career-best 15-game hitting streak from May 1-17, batting .381/.420/.619 with nine doubles, two home runs and eight RBI...was the longest streak by a Cub that season.
- Left the May 19 game at Washington with a right heel bruise and played through it for the rest of the season...was hitting .319 (59x185) with a .953 OPS in his first 44 games through May 19...batted .260 (90x346) with a .789 OPS in his final 94 games.
- Recorded a pinch-hit, walk-off RBI single on May 21 vs. Philadelphia...was his second career walk-off RBI.
- Belted his 100th career homer on June 23 vs. New York (NL), a game-winning, three-run shot in the bottom of the eighth.
- Hit his fifth career grand slam on June 29 at Cincinnati.
- Recorded his sixth career multi-homer game on August 5 vs. Oakland, the fifth anniversary of his Major League debut at Colorado.
- Suffered a hairline fracture in his left thumb on September 1 and missed the rest of the season...at the time of his injury, he ranked second in the NL in doubles (38) and was tied for sixth in extra-base hits (71) and game-winning RBI (12).

Enjoyed a breakout season in 2018, establishing career highs in nearly every offensive category, including games played (160), hits (176), doubles (40), triples (9), home runs (34) and RBI (111).

- Earned his first All-Star Game selection, starting at second base for the National League...was the leadoff hitter for the NL and went 1x3...also participated in the Home Run Derby, hitting 16 homers in the first round, but came up short to Max Muncy's 17 long balls.
- Led the NL in RBI, becoming the first Cub to do so since Sammy Sosa had 160 RBI in 2001...also ranked second in extra-base hits (83), tied for second in triples, third in total bases (336), fourth in slugging percentage (.554), tied for sixth in doubles, tied for seventh in homers, eighth in runs scored and tied for eighth in games played.
- Finished second in voting for the NL Most Valuable Player Award.
- Became the first player in franchise history to reach 40 doubles, 30 homers and 20 stolen bases in a season...became the first player in Major League history to reach 40 doubles, nine triples, 34 homers, 111 RBI and 21 stolen bases in a single season.
- Was only the fifth Cub to have a 30-homer, 100-RBI season before or in their age 25 season, joining Ernie Banks (1955), Kris Bryant (2016), Anthony Rizzo (2015) and Ron Santo (1964, 1965).
- Became the first Cub with at least 20 homers and 20 steals since Corey Patterson in 2014.
- Became just the fourth Cubs middle infielder to reach the 30-homer mark, joining Rogers Hornsby in 1929, Ernie Banks (five times from 1955 and 1957-60) and Ryne Sandberg (twice in 1989-90)...was also only the third middle infielder in franchise history to reach 111 RBI, the first since Ernie Banks drove in 117 runs in 1960.
- Had consecutive multi-homer games on April 10-11 vs. Pittsburgh, the first player in club history to do so while manning a middle infield position...was the first Cubs player to have back-to-back multi-homer games since Alfonso Soriano on May 16-17, 2008 vs. Pittsburgh.
- Posted an 11-game hitting streak from April 14-28, batting .400/.400/.760 with seven doubles, one triple, three home runs and 16 RBI.
- Reached 25 RBI prior to May 1, just the third Cub to do so in franchise history (Billy Williams, 25, 1970 and Derrek Lee, 28, 2005).
- Hit his 10th home run of the season in the team's 32nd game of the year on May 7 vs. Miami...was the fewest amount of team games for any second baseman to reach the 10-homer plateau in franchise history...the only Cubs middle infielder to reach 10 round-trippers in fewer team games is Ernie Banks (10 in 30 games in 1956).
- Recorded his third career steal of home, second in the regular season, on June 3 at New York (NL).
- Went 4x5 with a double, two home runs, including a grand slam, and five RBI on June 26 at Los Angeles (NL)...also had a five-RBI performance on July 14 at San Diego.
- Hit his 25th homer of the season in his 110th game on August 5 at Kansas City...became the third-fastest Cubs second baseman to 25 homers in a season, surpassed only by Ryne Sandberg in 1990 (92 games) and Rogers Hornsby in 1929 (106 games).
- Went 1x5 with a double and a RBI in the NL Wild Card Game vs. Colorado.

Made an Opening Day roster at the Major League level for the first time in his career in 2017, appearing in 145 games.
- Finished a double shy of the cycle on May 2 vs. Philadelphia, going 4x4 with a triple, a homer and three RBI...also had four hits on September 13 vs. New York (NL).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Named to the American League All-Star Team in 2017.
- Selected the American League Rookie of the Year in 2016 -- became the fifth player in franchise history to be named the American League Rookie of the Year.
- Named the Eastern League Pitcher of the Year in 2015 after compiling a 10-3 record with a 2.14 ERA (117.2IP/28ER) and 116 strikeouts in 21 starts between Double A Binghamton and Double A Erie.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Emerged as a dominant reliever in the Tigers bullpen in 2021, making 52 appearances.

- Struck out 73 batters in 69.2 innings, establishing a career-high strikeout rate of 24.6%.
- After spending the 2020 season protecting and rebuilding his arm following Tommy John surgery, his stuff bounced back this season...after posting a career-low average velocity (92.9 MPH) on his fastball/sinker in 2020, he averaged 95.7 MPH this season, equaling his career high set in both 2017 and 2018.
- Made his first regular season relief appearance on April 3 vs. Cleveland, pitching a scoreless seventh inning with one strikeout to earn his first career hold.
- Turned in his longest outing of the season on April 9 at Cleveland, tossing 4.0 innings out of the bullpen and allowing a run on two hits with five strikeouts.
- Made his first start of the season on April 14 at Houston, giving up two runs on three hits, a walk and two strikeouts in 5.0 innings to pick up his first win since June 14, 2018.
- Picked up his first big league save on May 5 at Boston, tossing a scoreless two-thirds of an inning... according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Fulmer became the first Tigers pitcher since saves became an official statistic in 1969 to start one day, and earn a save the next...the last Major Leaguer to do so was New York (AL)'s Chad Green on August 3-4, 2019.

- Made his 100th career appearance on May 19 at Seattle, pitching a scoreless inning with a strikeout.
- Had a couple of career superlatives on May 21 at Kansas City, posting his highest average pitch velocity in an outing at 96.5 MPH (previous high of 94.6 MPH on June 23, 2017 at San Diego) and throwing the hardest pitch of his career at 99.9 MPH (previous high of 99.2 MPH on June 8, 2018 vs. Cleveland).
- Sidelined from June 3-14 with a right shoulder strain.
- On the injured list from June 27-July 27 with a right cervical spine strain.
- Recorded his first multi-inning save on August 12 at Baltimore, throwing 2.0 scoreless innings with two hits allowed...finished the season with five multi-inning saves, which were the most by a Tigers pitcher in a season since Juan Acevedo had seven in 2002.
- Threw 9.2 shutout innings with eight hits allowed, two walks and 13 strikeouts in nine outings from July 27-August 17.
- Did not allow a run over his last 11 outings of the season, throwing 13.0 innings with 10 hits allowed and 12 strikeouts.

Made 10 starts for the Tigers during his 2020 campaign, his first game action since undergoing Tommy John surgery during Spring Training the year before.
- In an effort to protect and build the health of his arm, he was limited to no more than 3.0 innings in any start during the 2020 season…posted an 0-2 record and 8.78 ERA (27.2IP/27ER), allowing 45 hits and 12 walks while striking out 20.
- Held opponents scoreless in three of his 10 outings on the season…struck out a total of 10 batters in those three appearances, while he punched out the same number in all seven other outings combined.
- Received a no-decision in his season debut on July 27 vs. Kansas City, allowing four runs on five hits with one walk and two strikeouts in 2.2 innings…outing marked his first appearance in a Major League regular season game since September 15, 2018.

Missed the entire 2019 season after undergoing surgery for a right elbow ulnar collateral ligament injury.

Completed his third season with the Tigers in 2018, making 24 starts.
- Threw a season-high 8.0 innings in his season debut on April 1 in the first game of the doubleheader vs. Pittsburgh, allowing a run on four hits with three strikeouts…also tossed 8.0 innings on June 28 vs. Oakland.
- Finished the month of April with a 1-2 record, a 2.76 ERA (29.1IP/9ER) and 22 strikeouts in five starts.
- Allowed three earned runs-or-less in six-of-seven starts between June 8 and July 8, posting a 3.10 ERA (40.2IP/14ER) and 36 strikeouts over that span.
- Sidelined from July 20-August 24 with a left oblique strain.
- Sidelined from September 21-October 29 with a right lateral meniscus tear.

Started 25 games for the Tigers in 2017 as he completed his second Major League season.
- Selected to the American League All-Star Team for the first time in his career...he was one of four pitchers selected to the roster by MLB...was not on the active roster for the American League since he started on the Sunday prior to the All-Star break.
- Allowed just 13 home runs in 164.2 innings, leading the American League with 0.71 home runs allowed per nine innings...had a homerless streak of 73.2 innings during the season.
- Finished the season tied for fifth in the American League with one complete game, sixth with a 1.15 WHIP and 2.19 walks per nine innings and ninth with a .243 (150x617) opponent batting average.
- Started the season with 10 consecutive quality starts from April 7-May 27...the streak was tied with Justin Verlander (March 31-May 19, 2011) for the longest by a Tigers pitcher to begin a season since 1913.
- Named the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for May after posting a 3-2 record with a 2.19 ERA (37.0IP/9ER) and 28 strikeouts in five starts.
- Selected the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for June after compiling a 2-3 record with a 4.28 ERA (33.2IP/16ER) and 24 strikeouts in five starts.
- Sidelined from August 3-14 with right elbow ulnar neuritis.

Posted an 11-7 record with a 3.06 ERA (159.0IP/54ER), 136 hits allowed, 42 walks and 132 strikeouts in 26 starts during his rookie season in 2016.
- Earned American League Rookie of the Year honors by the BBWAA, becoming the fifth Tigers player to earn the honor and the first since Justin Verlander in 2006...named the American League Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News and American League Outstanding Rookie in the Players Choice Award balloting.
- Finished 10th in voting for the American League Cy Young Award.
- Tabbed the Detroit Sports Media Tigers Rookie of the Year.
- Among AL pitchers with at least 150.0 innings pitched, Fulmer ranked third with a 3.06 ERA, while he was seventh with a .231 (136x590) opponent batting average and a 1.12 WHIP.
- Finished his rookie season with 132 strikeouts, which was the second-highest total by a rookie pitcher in Tigers history, trailing only Les Cain, who struck out 156 batters as a rookie in 1970.
- Recalled from Triple A Toledo prior to the game on April 29 – made his Major League debut that night at Minnesota and earned the win, allowing two runs on seven hits with one walk and four strikeouts in 5.0 innings…struck out Brian Dozier in the first inning for the first strikeout of his Major League career.

- Recorded the first double-digit strikeout game of his Major League career on May 21 vs. Tampa Bay, striking out 11…added a second game with 10-or-more strikeouts on July 1 at Tampa Bay, fanning 10.
- Threw 7.2 shutout innings on May 27 at Oakland, allowing three hits with one walk and three strikeouts – with his performance, Fulmer became just the third Tigers pitcher since 1913 to throw at least 7.2 shutout innings and allow three hits-or-less in one of his first six career starts, joining Pat Underwood on May 31, 1979 at Toronto and Earl Whitehill on September 29, 1923 vs. Cleveland.
- Won his third straight start on June 1 at Los Angeles (AL), throwing 7.2 shutout innings with two hits allowed, two walks and eight strikeouts -- with his performance, Fulmer became just the second Tigers pitcher since 1913 to have back-to-back starts of 7.0-or-more shutout innings with three-or-fewer hits allowed, joining Mickey Lolich, who had back-to-back shutouts with three-or-fewer hits allowed on September 9 and 15, 1968…also became the second Tigers pitcher since 1913 to win five of his first seven career starts, joining Zach Miner, who won six of his first seven career starts in 2006.
- Carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning of the game on June 1 at Los Angeles (AL) before allowing a two-out single to C.J. Cron -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Fulmer became the first Tigers rookie to have a no-hit bid of that length since Bill Slayback, who went seven innings before allowing a hit in his Major League debut on June 26, 1972 against the Yankees.
- Threw 6.0 shutout innings with two hits allowed, three walks and five strikeouts in the game on June 6 vs. Toronto -- became the first Tigers pitcher since at least 1913 to have three straight starts with 6.0-or-more shutout innings and three-or-fewer hits allowed.
- Threw at least 6.0 shutout innings and allowed three-or-fewer hits in four straight starts from May 27-June 12 -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since 1893, when the mound was moved to 60 feet, six inches away from the plate, Fulmer and Jake Arrieta (September 22, 2015-April 4, 2016) are the only two pitchers to record four consecutive starts of 6.0-or-more shutout innings and three-or-fewer hits allowed.
- Had a consecutive scoreless innings streak of 33.1 innings from May 21-June 17, which was snapped with a two-out solo homer in the sixth inning by Kansas City's Salvador Perez…the streak ranks as the longest by a Tigers pitcher in franchise history, and according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the streak was the second longest by a rookie pitcher since 1971, trailing only a streak of 35.0 scoreless innings by Fernando Valenzuela during the 1981 season.
- Named Tigers Pitcher of the Month for June after starting five games and posting a 3-1 record with a 0.61 ERA (29.2IP/2ER), 14 hits allowed, 13 walks and 24 strikeouts…led the Majors with a 0.61 ERA during the month, while he was second with a .140 opponent batting average.
- Allowed one run-or-fewer in eight starts from May 21-July 1, becoming one of only six pitchers since 1913 to have eight straight starts with one-or-fewer runs allowed, joining Bob Gibson (11 straight starts, June 6-July 30, 1968), Josh Johnson (8 straight starts, May 13-June 20, 2010), Derek Lowe (8 straight starts, August 31, 2008-April 10, 2009), Johan Santana (8 straight starts, August 23-September 29, 2004) and J.R. Richard (8 straight starts, August 3-September 6, 1979).
- Recorded his ninth win of the season on July 6 at Cleveland -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Fulmer became the third rookie in franchise history to win at least nine games before the All-Star break, joining Mark Fidrych in 1976 (9-2) and Justin Verlander in 2006 (10-4).
- Over a 10-start stretch from May 21-July 17, compiled a 7-1 record with a 0.83 ERA (65.1IP/6ER) and 55 strikeouts -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since the Major Leagues began keeping track of earned runs just over 100 years ago, no other pitcher has compiled an ERA that low over a span of 10 successive starts in the season of his Major League debut…over the last 50 seasons, the only other rookie to produce an ERA below 1.00 over a span of 10 consecutive starts was Cal Eldred, who had an ERA of 0.95 over a 10-start run for the Brewers in August and September, 1992.
- Threw the first complete game and shutout of his career on August 14 at Texas, allowing four hits and striking out nine…became the first Tigers rookie pitcher to throw a shutout since Justin Verlander on May 22, 2006 at Kansas City.
- Pitched 7.0 innings in the game on September 9 vs. Baltimore, allowing two runs on three hits with one walk and five strikeouts…in his first eight career starts at Comerica Park, Fulmer had a 2-2 record with a 2.90 ERA (49.2IP/16ER) and 38 strikeouts -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, over the last 25 years, only two other Tigers pitchers have had an ERA under 3.00 over their first eight MLB starts at their home park: Mike Maroth had a home ERA of 2.44 after eight starts in 2002 and Jeff Weaver had a 2.76 home ERA in 1999.
- Ranked as the top prospect in the Tigers organization and the No. 47 prospect overall by Baseball America.

Selected the Eastern League Pitcher of the Year in 2015 after leading the league with a 2.14 ERA (117.2IP/28ER) and a .769 winning percentage and ranking fourth with a 1.10 WHIP and a .228 (77x346) opponent batting average.

- Started the season in the New York Mets organization before being acquired by the Tigers along with Luis Cessa in exchange for Yoenis Céspedes on July 31.
- Led all Eastern League starters with 8.87 strikeouts per nine innings, while he was third with 10.02 baserunners per nine innings and fourth with a .228 opponent batting average.
- Named a Minor League All-Star and a Double A All-Star by Baseball America, while he was selected to the Eastern League postseason All-Star Team.
- Allowed three earned runs-or-less in 14 of his 15 starts with Double A Binghamton from May 3-July 28.

- Had a stretch of five consecutive quality starts from June 18-July 9 -- during the stretch, he compiled a 3-1 record with a 0.54 ERA (33.1IP/2ER) and 36 strikeouts.
- Did not allow an earned run in seven of nine starts from June 24-August 9.
- Ranked as the 13th-best prospect in the Mets system and the No. 7 prospect in the Eastern League by Baseball America.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Pitched in 39 games with the Tigers in 2021...also made 19 outings with Triple A Toledo.

- Earned the fifth save of his career and the first of more than three outs on April 3 vs. Cleveland, throwing 1.1 scoreless innings with one hit allowed and one strikeout.
- Recorded an impressive save on April 14 at Houston, entering with the bases loaded and no outs in the ninth inning, and the game-tying run at first base...worked out of the jam, allowing just one of the runners to score...prior to that performance, the last Tigers reliever to earn a save and inherit three baserunners in the same contest was Francisco Rodriguez on April 14, 2017 at Cleveland.
- Turned in the longest outing of his career on June 11 vs. Chicago (AL), pitching 2.0 scoreless innings with two strikeouts.
- Picked up his second win of the season on September 14 vs. Milwaukee, working a scoreless 11th inning with a hit and a walk...wiggled out of a bases loaded jam by inducing a double play from Christian Yelich.

Spent the entire 2020 season in the big leagues, finishing the season as Detroit's closer...made 26 appearances and posted one of the best seasons of any rookie reliever in Tigers history.

- Compiled a 2-1 record with four saves and a 1.66 ERA (21.2IP/4ER), allowing 18 hits and 10 walks, while striking out 12…finished with the 10th lowest ERA in franchise history among rookie relievers with at least 21.0 innings pitched.
- Finished the season as the only Major League pitcher to have 11-or-more inherited runners and not allow any to score…is the second Tigers reliever in franchise history to accomplish that feat, joining Luis Pineda, who stranded all 12 runners he inherited in 2001.
- Tossed the 10th inning on August 7 at Pittsburgh, becoming the first Tigers pitcher to make an extra-innings appearance with a runner starting at second base…runner came around to score in the inning, but Garcia earned the win in the contest, the second of his career.
- Picked up the first save of his Major League career on September 6 at Minnesota, pitching a scoreless ninth inning with one hit allowed…ended up with four saves in 2020…is the first Tigers rookie since 2003 to have more than two saves in a season.
- Ranked as the No. 17 prospect in the Tigers organization by Baseball America.

Spent most of the 2019 season with Triple A Toledo, making 31 appearances out of the bullpen...also saw the first big league action of his career, pitching in seven games with Detroit.

- Sidelined from April 4-May 2 while recovering from right elbow surgery.
- Allowed one run in his final nine outings with Toledo from August 3-30, posting a 3-0 record with a 0.90 ERA (10.0IP/1ER) with six strikeouts.
- Had his contract selected from Toledo prior to the game on September 1 vs. Minnesota...made his Major League debut on September 2 against the Twins, pitching a scoreless ninth inning.
- Picked up the first strikeout of his big league career on September 12 vs. New York (AL), fanning Gio Urshela.
- Rated as the No. 22 prospect in Detroit's player development system by Baseball America.

Missed the entire 2018 season after undergoing right elbow surgery.
- Ranked as the No. 16 prospect in the Tigers organization by Baseball America.

Pitched at four different levels of the Tigers organization in 2017, combining to make 52 appearances between Single A West Michigan, Single A Lakeland, Double A Erie and Triple A Toledo.
- Named an organization All-Star by MiLB.com.
- Threw 24.2 consecutive scoreless innings from April 29-July 2...over that stretch, he went 2-0 with eight saves, 11 hits allowed, five walks and 41 strikeouts.
- Rated as the No. 22 prospect in the Tigers organization by Baseball America.

Completed his first season of professional baseball in 2016, spending most of the season with Single A Connecticut.
- Ranked tied for sixth in the New York-Penn League with six saves.
- Did not allow an earned run in the first 12 appearances of his professional career, throwing 13.2 innings and giving up eight hits with three walks and 18 strikeouts.

AMATEUR HIGHLIGHTS

- Played collegiately at the University of Miami from 2014-16.
- Finished his career with 43 saves, which were the most in school history and tied for the most in Atlantic Coast Conference history.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Completed his first full Major League season in 2021, starting 30 games.

- Led all rookies with 12 quality starts, while he ranked eighth among American League pitchers (min. 140.0 innings pitched) with a 1.14 WHIP.
- His 3.71 ERA was the fifth lowest among Tigers rookie since 1947 and the lowest since Michael Fulmer had a 3.06 ERA (159.0IP/54ER) in 2016.
- Made an Opening Day roster at the Major League level for the first time in his career.
- Earned his first big league victory on April 12 at Houston, throwing 7.0 shutout innings with five hits allowed and two walks, while striking out five...became the first Detroit rookie to throw 7.0-or-more scoreless innings since Michael Fulmer threw a shutout on August 8, 2016 at Texas.
- Allowed just one earned run over his first two starts, becoming the fourth Tigers rookie since 2000 to allow no more than one combined earned run in his first two starts of a season, joining Robbie Ray (2014), Drew Smyly (2012) and Andy Van Hekken (2002), who each allowed one earned run.
- Threw his first career complete game in the first game of the doubleheader on April 29 at Chicago (AL), going 6.0 innings and allowing three runs on four hits and three walks, while striking out six...was the first Tigers rookie pitcher to go the distance since Michael Fulmer on August 16, 2016 at Texas.
- Turned in the longest outing of his career on May 17 at Seattle, throwing 7.2 innings and allowing a run on three hits and three walks, while striking out seven.
- Posted five consecutive quality starts from April 29-May 23, over which he had a 2-1 record with a 2.25 ERA (32.0IP/8ER) and 26 strikeouts...the streak was tied for the longest by a Tigers rookie since Justin Verlander had eight straight in 2006 and the longest by a Major League rookie since Atlanta's Mike Soroka had a six-game streak in 2019.
- Named Tigers Pitcher of the Month for May after posting a 2-0 record and 1.74 ERA (31.0IP/6ER) with 27 strikeouts...ranked fourth in the American League in ERA and opponent batting average (.162) during the month, while he was fifth in WHIP (0.87).

- Allowed three-or-fewer runs in 14 straight starts from April 29-July 19, over which he had a 4-3 record with a 2.97 ERA (78.2IP/26ER) and 65 strikeouts...the streak was the longest by a Tigers pitcher since Jack Morris had 16 consecutive starts from July 9-September 17, 1983.
- Earned Tigers Pitcher of the Month for July, compiling a 1-1 record with a 3.18 ERA (22.2IP/8ER) and 16 strikeouts in five starts...among American League pitchers with at least 22.0 innings pitched during the month, he ranked seventh with a 1.01 WHIP.
- Contributed on both sides of the ball on August 24 at St. Louis, throwing 5.0 shutout innings and also drawing a four-pitch bases loaded walk in his first big league plate appearance...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first player at any position to draw a four-pitch bases loaded walk in his first MLB plate appearance since Cubs pitcher Courtney Duncan on May 5, 2001 vs. Los Angeles (NL)... the last Tigers player at any position to walk with the bases loaded (of any pitch count) in his first big league plate appearance was pitcher Daryl Patterson vs. Chicago (AL) on April 13, 1968.

One of the top prospects in baseball, he appeared in the first seven games of his Major League career in 2020...posted an 0-3 record and 6.99 ERA (28.1IP/22ER) on 29 hits and 13 walks, while striking out 26.

- Was selected from the alternate training site prior to the game on August 19 at Chicago (AL) and made his Major League debut that night…tossed 4.1 innings in his debut, allowing three runs on seven hits with no walks and seven strikeouts…became the first pitcher in Tigers history to strike out seven-or-more batters while not issuing a walk in his debut and the first MLB pitcher to do so since Stephen Strasburg with Washington on June 8, 2020 vs. Pittsburgh.
- Had the best start of his season on September 11 at Chicago (AL)…did not factor into the decision, allowing two runs on one hit with two walks and five strikeouts in 5.1 innings…he faced the minimum through the first five innings and carried a no-hitter into the sixth inning before allowing a double to Yolmer Sánchez…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the no-hit bid was the longest by a Detroit rookie pitcher since Michael Fulmer threw 6.2 innings without giving up a hit on June 1, 2016 at Los Angeles (AL).
- Was very successful with his fastball in 2020, holding opponents to a .136 (3x22) batting average against that pitch…that figure ranked ninth in the American League among pitchers that threw at least 140 four-seamers during the season.
- Ranked as the top prospect in the Tigers organization and the No. 13 prospect overall by Baseball America ...also rated as possessing the best changeup in the Tigers system.

Put together an impressive 2019 season, compiling an 8-3 record with a 2.55 ERA (109.1IP/31ER), 0.94 WHIP and 106 strikeouts in 21 starts between Single A Lakeland and Double A Erie.

- Named to the Eastern League midseason All-Star Team.
- Earned Florida State League Pitcher of the Week honors in consecutive weeks on April 22 and 29...over the two weeks, combined to throw 15.0 shutout innings with two hits allowed, one walk and 10 strikeouts.
- Made his debut with Erie on April 29 at Altoona and threw a no-hitter on 98 pitches, allowing just two baserunners, one on a hit by pitch and the other on a walk, and striking out seven...it marked the fourth no-hitter in SeaWolves history.
- Selected Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April after posting a 3-0 record with a 0.26 ERA (35.0IP/1ER) and 32 strikeouts...allowed just seven hits during the month, holding opponents to a .064 (7x109) batting average.
- Named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for the week ending May 5 after making two starts during the week and going 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA (14.0IP/0ER) and 11 strikeouts.
- Picked up his second Eastern League weekly honor for the week ending May 26...won a pair of starts during the week and threw 14.0 scoreless innings with seven hits allowed and 12 strikeouts.
- Sidelined from June 14-July 10 with right shoulder inflammation.
- Ranked as the top prospect in the Tigers organization, the No. 16 prospect in all of baseball and the second-best prospect in the Eastern League by Baseball America.

Made five starts between the GCL Tigers West and Single A Lakeland as he completed his first season of professional baseball in 2018.

- Made his professional debut on July 26 vs. the GCL Yankees East, throwing 2.0 hitless innings with four strikeouts.
- Struck out four over 3.0 shutout innings in his first start with Lakeland on July 31 at Dunedin.

AMATEUR HIGHLIGHTS

- Played collegiately at Auburn University, pitching for the Tigers from 2016-18...became just the second two-time All-American and consensus All-American in Auburn history.
- Earned first-team All-SEC honors and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy in 2018, as he led the SEC with 151 strikeouts, 12.45 strikeouts per 9.0 innings and a 0.81 WHIP, while he was second in the league with 12 walks allowed and 0.99 walks allowed per 9.0 innings.
- Named a second team All-American in 2017 as he went 8-2 with a 2.04 ERA (83.2IP/19ER), which ranked third in the SEC and 25th nationally...also led the country with a 12.11 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by the Tigers in the first round (first overall) of the 2018 MLB Draft out of Auburn University (signing scout: Justin Henry)
- On injured list, June 14-July 10, 2019 (right shoulder inflammation)

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Completed his first full big league season in 2021, appearing in 31 games, including 29 starts.

- Set a Tigers single-season rookie record for strikeouts with 164, besting Spencer Turnbull, who struck out 146 in 2019.
- Made an Opening Day roster at the Major League level for the first time in his career.
- Pitched out of the bullpen in the first game of the doubleheader on April 21 vs. Pittsburgh, throwing 3.0 scoreless innings with three hits allowed, three walks and two strikeouts...marked his second career relief outing (other, September 27, 2020 at Kansas City).
- Earned his first win of the season on May 19 at Seattle, allowing two runs on four hits and two walks, while striking out nine.
- After finishing the month of April with a 0-4 record and a 6.14 ERA (22.0IP/15ER), had an impressive turnaround in May, posting a 2-3 record with a 3.33 ERA (27.0IP/10ER) in five starts.
- Recorded a career-high 11 strikeouts on June 5 at Chicago (AL), which was tied for the most in a game by a Tigers rookie since 1974 (accomplished four times, most recently by Michael Fulmer in 2016)...struck out eight-or-more batters in four consecutive games from May 19-June 5...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first Tigers rookie pitcher to strike out eight-or-more batters in four consecutive starts and was the fifth big league rookie since 2010 to do so (most recently, Noah Syndergaard in 2015).
- Turned in his longest start of the season on June 27 vs. Houston, throwing 7.0 innings and allowing one run on one hit with three walks and nine strikeouts.
- Allowed three runs-or-less in eight consecutive starts from May 19-June 27, during which he had a 4-1 record with a 2.82 ERA (44.2IP/15ER) and 63 strikeouts.
- Finished with 105 strikeouts prior to the All-Star break, the most by a Tigers rookie since 1947.
- Had back-to-back scoreless starts on August 5 vs. Boston and August 11 at Baltimore, throwing 11.0 shutout frames over the two games.
- Posted his second double-digit strikeout performance on August 25 at St. Louis, fanning 10 in 5.0 innings.
- Named Tigers Pitcher of the Month for August, compiling a 2-2 record with a 3.25 ERA (27.2IP/10ER) and 33 strikeouts...finished the month with a 1.16 WHIP and .243 (26x107) opponent batting average... his 33 strikeouts ranked tied for 10th in the American League.
- Struck out four-or-more batters in 22 consecutive appearances from May 7-September 12...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest streak by a Major League rookie since 1893...was also the longest for any Tigers pitcher since Justin Verlander had a 28-game streak from July 29, 2015-April 5, 2016.
- Posted the 200th strikeout of his career on September 25 vs. Kansas City, punching out Salvador Perez to end the first inning...became the fastest pitcher (by appearances) to reach 200 strikeouts in Tigers history, besting Michael Fulmer, who struck out his 200th batter in his 40th appearance.

Made the first eight appearances of his career in 2020, including seven starts…posted a 1-4 record and 5.63 ERA (32.0IP/20ER), allowing 28 hits and 11 walks, while striking out 37.

- Allowed more than two earned runs in just two of his appearances this season, and struck out six-or-more batters in four of his last five outings to close out his rookie campaign.
- Made his Major League debut on August 18 at Chicago (AL), allowing four runs on seven hits with one walk and one strikeout in 2.0 innings…punched out Eloy Jiménez to end the second inning for his first big league strikeout.
- Turned in one of his best starts of the season on September 5 at Minnesota, throwing a career-best 6.0 innings and allowing one run on two hits with two walks and six strikeouts…became the ninth starting pitcher in franchise history to throw 6.0-or-more innings while allowing one run-or-fewer on two-or-fewer hits in one of his first four career starts, and the first to do so since Drew Smyly on April 28, 2012 at New York (AL).

- Posted his second quality start of his rookie season on September 16 vs. Kansas City, allowing three runs, two earned, on four hits with eight strikeouts in 6.0 innings, while taking the loss…became the second pitcher in Tigers history to strike out eight-or-more batters while not issuing a walk in one of his first six career appearances, joining Schoolboy Rowe, who had nine strikeouts without giving up a walk on April 21, 1933 at Cleveland.
- Rated as the No. 3 prospect in the Tigers organization and the No. 34 prospect overall by Baseball America.

Combined to make 24 starts between Single A Lakeland and Double A Erie in 2019.
- Named to the Florida State League midseason All-Star Team and was selected an organization All-Star by MiLB.com.
- Ranked third among all full-season Minor League pitchers with 179 strikeouts...had nine double-digit strikeout games during the season, highlighted by a 13 strikeout performance on July 19 at Richmond.
- Earned Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Month honors in both June and July...started four games with Lakeland in June, and had a 2-0 record with a 0.39 ERA (23.0IP/1ER) and 35 strikeouts...went 0-2 with a 2.03 ERA (31.0IP/7ER) and 56 strikeouts in six starts between Lakeland and Erie in July.
- Allowed two earned runs-or-less in each of his final five starts of the season from July 31-August 28, compiling a 2-2 record with a 1.57 ERA (23.0IP/4ER) and 42 strikeouts.
- Ranked as the fourth-best prospect in the Florida State League by Baseball America.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Named the Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2017.
- Named to the American League All-Star Team in 2021.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Became one of the top high-leverage relievers in baseball in 2021, appearing in 62 games.

- Limited opponents to a .198 (46x232) batting average, the lowest by a Tigers reliever (min. 60.0 innings pitched) since Joaquin Benoit had a .197 opponent batting average in 2013.
- Succesfully converted 18-of-19 save opportunities on the season, including 11 straight to end the season, the longest streak of saves converted by a Tigers pitcher since Shane Greene was successful in 19 straight save opportunities from September 14, 2018-May 12, 2019...ranked ninth in the American League in saves.
- Was selected to the American League All-Star Team, earning his first career All-Star selection...threw an inning in the game, allowing a solo home run.
- Earned the first win of his Major League career on April 6 vs. Minnesota, working 2.0 scoreless innings with one hit allowed and two strikeouts.

- Had three wins and four saves through the first 36 games of the season, becoming the sixth Tigers pitcher since 1969 to do so...prior to Soto, it was most recently accomplished by Mike Henneman in 1991.
- Allowed just one run over a 17-game stretch from May 17-June 30, compiling a 1-0 record with two saves, a 0.53 ERA (17.0IP/1ER) and 20 strikeouts.
- Earned his first multi-inning save on July 7 at Texas, working 2.0 shutout innings with one hit allowed, one walk and three strikeouts...was the first six-out save by a Tiger since Warwick Saupold on April 21, 2018 vs. Kansas City...also had a multi-inning save on September 5 at Cincinnati.
- Needed just six pitches to pick up the save in the first game of the doubleheader on July 17 vs. Minnesota, becoming the first Tiger to record a 1.0-inning save with six pitches-or-less since Joe Nathan threw six pitches on May 12, 2014 at Baltimore.
- Saved three straight games from July 20-22 vs. Texas, the first Tigers pitcher to save three-or-more consecutive games since Shane Greene had saves in five straight from April 2-7, 2019.
- Threw his fastest pitch of the season on August 3 vs. Boston, a 101.2 MPH fastball that was fouled off by Christian Vazquez...was the highest velocity on a pitch by a Tigers hurler since Bruce Rondon threw a 103.6 MPH fastball on August 7, 2013 at Cleveland...Soto threw 10 pitches at 100+ MPH on August 3, the first Tigers pitcher since Bruce Rondon (10 pitches on August 12, 2015) to have 10-or-more 100+ MPH pitches in a game.
- Placed on the injured list on September 19 with a left finger fracture and missed the rest of the season.

Made 27 appearances for the Tigers in 2020, posting an 0-1 record with two saves and 4.30 ERA (23.0IP/11ER)...was used almost exclusively in late inning situations, tossing 20.1 of his 23.0 innings in innings seven through nine.

- Started off the season without allowing a run in any of his first 10 outings, over which he allowed four hits and two walks, while striking out 14 batters in 10.1 innings…also closed the season allowing runs in just three of his final 15 appearances.
- Allowed multiple runs in three of his 26 outings in 2020…outside of those three appearances he posted an 0.83 ERA (21.2IP/2ER)…all-in-all, he held opponents scoreless in 22-of-26 outings this season.
- Led the American League among pitchers with at least 23.0 innings pitched with an average velocity of 95.3 MPH…threw the fastest pitch by a Tiger this year at 100.4 miles per hour, on July 31 vs. Cincinnati to strike out Matt Davidson in the seventh.
- Tossed a scoreless inning of relief in game two of the August 29 doubleheader vs. Minnesota, earning his first career save.

Saw the first Major League action of his career in 2019, appearing in 33 games, including seven starts.

- Made 10 multi-inning relief appearances from the bullpen this season, posting an 0-2 record and 4.22 ERA (21.1IP/10ER), allowing 26 hits and 10 walks, while striking out 21.
- Made his Major League debut on May 11 in the second game of the doubleheader at Minnesota and took the loss, allowing seven runs on nine hits with two walks and one strikeout in 4.0 innings...struck out Ehire Adrianza for the first punchout of his big league career.
- Picked up his first two hits in the first two plate appearances of his Major League career on May 24 at New York (NL) off Noah Syndergaard…the performance marked just the sixth multi-hit game for Detroit pitchers since interleague play began in 1997 and the first since Justin Verlander on April 12, 2014 at San Diego…he became the first Tigers rookie pitcher with a multi-hit game since Rick Porcello on June 12, 2009 at Pittsburgh.
- Did not allow a run in nine-of-10 outings from August 14-September 8, posting 0.93 ERA (9.2IP/1ER) with six strikeouts.
- Pitched in 12 games with Aguilas Cibaenas in the Dominican Winter League, and had a 1-0 record with three saves, a 0.82 ERA (11.0IP/1ER) and 16 strikeouts.
- Ranked as the No. 15 prospect in the Tigers organization by Baseball America.

Spent the entire 2018 season with Single A Lakeland, making 25 appearances, including 23 starts.

- Ranked fourth in the Florida State League with a .235 (101x430) opponent batting average, while he was fifth with 115 strikeouts.
- Threw a season-high 7.0 innings on May 21 vs. Palm Beach, striking out seven and allowing two runs…also pitched 7.0 innings on August 14 vs. Daytona.
- Allowed two earned runs-or-less in six consecutive starts from June 12-July 13, posting a 2-2 record with a 1.98 ERA (27.1IP/6ER) and 31 strikeouts…struck out nine batters in consecutive starts on July 8 vs. Tampa and July 13 vs. Fort Myers.
- Posted a 5-4 record with a 2.96 ERA (70.0IP/23ER) and 77 strikeouts in 13 appearances, including 12 starts, at home, while he was 3-4 with a 6.85 ERA (43.1IP/33ER) and 38 strikeouts in 12 outings, including 11 starts, on the road.
- Made seven starts with the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League, compiling a 1-0 record with a 3.10 ERA (29.0IP/10ER) and 25 strikeouts.
- Ranked as the 10th-best prospect in the Tigers player development system by Baseball America.

Selected the Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2017, after compiling a 12-2 record with a 2.25 ERA (124.0IP/31ER) and 144 strikeouts in 23 starts between Single A West Michigan and Single A Lakeland.

- Named to the Midwest League midseason and postseason All-Star Teams.
- Ranked tied for seventh in the Midwest League with 10 wins, while he was 10th with 116 strikeouts.
- Did not allow an earned run in his first five starts of the season from April 11-May 7, a stretch that lasted 28.0 innings.
- Struck out a season-high 12 batters on May 20 at Lake County...also had a double-digit strikeout performance on July 14 vs. Cedar Rapids, striking out 11.
- Made four starts with West Michigan in July, going 3-0 with a 1.71 ERA (21.0IP/4ER) and 30 strikeouts.
- Started five games with Lakeland and allowed two runs-or-less in each start.
- Ranked as the No. 30 prospect in the Tigers organization by Baseball America.

Started 15 games with Single A Connecticut in 2016.
- Ranked tied for second in the New York-Penn League with 15 starts, while he was tied for sixth with 62 strikeouts and tied for ninth with 71.1 innings pitched...ranked fifth among New York-Penn League starting pitchers with 7.82 strikeouts per nine innings.
- Finished the month of August with a 3-1 record, a 2.45 ERA (33.0IP/9ER) and 29 strikeouts in six starts.
- Limited lefthanded hitters to a .194 (19x98) batting average, while righties hit .292 (49x168) against him.

Made 11 appearances, including six starts, between the GCL Tigers and Single A Connecticut in 2015.
- Made five appearances, including one start, with the GCL Tigers in July, going 1-3 with a 2.14 ERA (21.0IP/5ER) and 21 strikeouts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Threw a no-hitter on May 18, 2021 at Seattle...was the eighth no-hitter in franchise history.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Limited to nine starts in 2021 due to missing the second half of the season with an injury.

- Began the season on the injured list before being reinstated prior to the second game of the doubleheader on April 21 vs. Pittsburgh.
- Threw the eighth no-hitter in franchise history on May 18 at Seattle, striking out nine and walking two... was the fifth no-hitter in the Majors in 2021...joined Justin Verlander (May 7, 2011 at Toronto and June 12, 2007 vs. Milwaukee), Jack Morris (April 7, 1984 at Chicago (AL)), Jim Bunning (July 20, 1958 at Boston), Virgil Trucks (August 25, 1952 vs. Washington and May 15, 1952 at Washington) and George Mullin (July 4, 1912 vs. St. Louis) as the only pitchers in Tigers history to throw a no-hitter.
- Earned AL Co-Player of the Week honors after throwing his no-hitter, becoming the first Tigers player to a win a weekly award since Jeimer Candelario for the week ending September 13, 2020, and the first Detroit pitcher to win the award since the week ending June 23, 2013.
- Allowed two earned runs-or-less in each of his final six starts of the season from May 6-June 4, compiling a 3-0 record with a 2.12 ERA (34.0IP/8ER) and 32 strikeouts.
- Was placed on the injured list on June 5 with a right forearm strain and missed the rest of the season.

Was one of the club's best pitchers in 2020, ranking second on the team with 11 starts…finished with a 4-4 record and 3.97 ERA (56.2IP/25ER), allowing 47 hits and 29 walks, while striking out 51.

- Allowed just two homers on the season, which was tied for the fewest by a pitcher in the Major Leagues with at least 55.0 innings pitched.
- Finished the season with a career-high four wins, including the first of his career at Comerica Park on July 31 vs. Cincinnati when he tossed 6.0 innings and allowed two earned runs on three hits and a walks, while punching out six…went 3-1 on the season at home, bouncing back from an 0-12 mark to start his career.
- Had one of baseball's most effective fastballs in 2020, holding opponents to a .198 batting average and posting a 25.3% strikeout rate when using it…those figures ranked seventh and 10th, respectively, among American League pitchers with at least 55.0 innings pitched.
- Allowed three earned runs-or-fewer in nine of his 11 starts in 2020…has 31 such efforts since the beginning of the 2019 season, which ranked as the highest total among Tigers pitchers over that span.
- Punched out five-or-more batters in five of his last six starts to finish the season…only five American League pitchers had more such games over that span.
- Earned his fourth win of the season on September 19 vs. Cleveland, tossing 6.0 innings and allowing two earned runs on five hits and no walks, while striking out seven…his seven strikeouts in that contest were the most he had in a game since striking out eight in his first start of the season on July 26 at Cincinnati.

Completed his first full season in the Majors in 2019, starting 30 games.

- Was one of the most durable rookie pitchers in the Major Leagues this season, ranking fifth in games started and eighth with 148.1 innings pitched…among qualified American League rookie pitchers, he ranked second in strikeouts, fourth in ERA, fifth in opponents batting average (.267) and WHIP (1.44) and seventh in wins.
- Started the home opener on April 4 vs. Kansas City and recorded the first double-digit strikeout performance of his career, fanning 10, which were the most strikeouts by a Tigers pitcher in a home opener since 1914, when Jean Dubuc also struck out 10.
- Didn't allow more than three earned runs in any of his first 10 starts of the season, posting a 2-3 record and 2.68 ERA (53.2IP/16ER)…he ranked sixth in ERA among American League pitchers with at least 50 innings pitched during that span.

- Sidelined from June 28-July 12 with right shoulder inflammation.
- Sidelined from July 18-August 5 with a back strain.
- Ranked as the No. 21 prospect in the Tigers organization and also rated as possessing the best slider in the organization by Baseball America.

Made 21 starts between Double A Erie and Triple A Toledo in 2018...also saw the first Major League action of his career, appearing in four outings, including three starts with the Tigers.
- Earned Eastern League Pitcher of the Week honors twice during the season…his first award came for the week ending May 13 when he had a 2-0 record and threw 11.0 scoreless innings with 12 strikeouts, while the other came for the week ending June 10 when he tossed 12.2 innings, striking out 14 and giving up three runs.
- Threw a shutout for Erie on June 10 vs. Reading, allowing just four hits and striking out a season-high 11 batters…the shutout was the first of his career, while it was his second complete game (other, May 31, 2015 at Fort Wayne as a member of Single A West Michigan).

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first Major League Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the Major Leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

HITTING STREAKS BY TIGERS ROOKIES

A pair of Tigers rookies, Carlos Peña and Omar Infante, each strung together 12-game hitting streaks in 2002. They became just the ninth and 10th rookies, respectively, to post hitting streaks of 12-games-or-longer over the last 59 years for the Tigers. Glenn Wilson tops the list with a 19-game hitting streak in 1982. The complete list since 1953 follows:

Player	Streak	Date	Year
Glenn Wilson	19 games	August 13-September 5	1982
Leon Roberts	17 games	April 13-May 16	1975
Harvey Kuenn	15 games	August 29-September 9	1953
Milt Cuyler	15 games	August 30-September 15	1991
Rick Peters	14 games	August 26-September 8	1980
Harvey Kuenn	13 games	August 7-19	1953
Coot Veal	13 games	August 14-27	1958
Dan Meyer	13 games	June 27-July 9	1975
Carlos Peña	12 games	September 8-21	2002
Omar Infante	12 games	September 13-27	2002

- Mike Ilitch was a once-in-a-generation entrepreneur and champion for Detroit.
- He and his wife, Marian, invested their family savings in 1959 to open the first Little Caesars store in Garden City, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. That single mom-and-pop pizza shop grew into the largest carryout pizza chain in the world, with restaurants in 27 countries and territories across the globe. The success of the business was built upon the exceptional quality and value of the Little Caesars menu and Mike's marketing savvy and imaginative ideas in production.
- The growth of Little Caesars helped Mike and Marian create other leading brands in the food, sports and entertainment industries.
- The couple purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982. While the team was known as the Dead Wings at the time, Mike and Marian believed they were a sleeping giant and immediately took charge to turn the team around. By 1997, the Red Wings won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years, and they went on to win three more. Four Stanley Cup parades held along Woodward Avenue in Detroit attracted hundreds of thousands of people, many from the suburbs who had not been to downtown Detroit in decades. Detroit became known as Hockeytown and brought a sense of pride to the area's hockey fans and the community as a whole.
- Throughout Mike's life, he remained true to his hometown and was a zealous supporter of Detroit, working tirelessly to help it prosper and to bring pride to the city.
- In 1988, Mike and Marian purchased the neglected Fox Theatre and carefully restored it to its original 1928 splendor.
- One year later, they moved their Little Caesars world headquarters from the suburbs into the newly renovated Fox Office Center adjacent to the restored theatre. This was during a time when many businesses were fleeing the city. Restoration of the theatre and renovation of the office building brought new life to the area. Currently, the headquarters campus is being expanded with an addition of a new nine-story, 234,000 square foot building next door to the Fox Theatre.

- Mike displayed further commitment to the city he loved when he purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992 and built a new state-of-the-art ballpark for the team. Remembering his early years as a Minor League baseball player with the Tigers, he did everything in his power to make the fan experience at Comerica Park a memorable one.
- The new ballpark enabled Detroit to successfully host the MLB All-Star Game in 2005 and the Tigers would go on to host the World Series in 2006. Mike also encouraged the Ford family to bring the Detroit Lions back to Detroit from the suburbs and build a new stadium right next door to the ballpark by relinquishing a portion of land to make way for the new stadium. The new football venue allowed Detroit to host the Super Bowl in 2006.
- Mike and Marian believed passionately in giving back to the community. As the parents of children who played hockey, the couple wanted to provide other children the opportunity to play the sport as well. So they established the Little Caesars Amateur Hockey Program in 1968, and it has provided opportunities for tens of thousands of youngsters to play the great game of hockey over the years. Hundreds have gone on to play at colleges, universities and in the National Hockey League.
- The couple established the Little Caesars Love Kitchen in 1985. With two trucks on the road to serve those in need, these restaurants on wheels have served more than three million people.
- Inspired by the story of a veteran returning to civilian life, Mike founded the Little Caesars Veterans Program in 2006. He had read a newspaper story about an Army Sergeant who had tragically lost both his legs during combat in Iraq. As a veteran himself, Mike was impressed with the can-do attitude of this veteran. The Little Caesars Veterans Program that followed provides honorably discharged veterans with financial incentives and other support to help them open a Little Caesars franchise.
- The charitable reach of Mike & Marian Ilitch and the Ilitch companies has expanded to more than $230 million in grants and giving since 2000. Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation, continue to carry on the mission of supporting deserving causes and organizations across the community.
- As part of this charitable legacy, Mike & Marian Ilitch have personally gifted nearly $50 million to Detroit's Wayne State University – $8 million to the Department of Surgery and $40 million dedicated to establish the new Mike Ilitch School of Business, which will train and educate the next generation of the city's great entrepreneurs.
- Mike received numerous business, cultural, and philanthropic awards during his lifetime, including:
  - The International Franchise Association Hall of Fame (2016)
  - SportsBusiness Journal's "The Champions: Pioneers and Innovators in Sports Business" (2014)
  - Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (2004)
  - US Hockey Hall of Fame (2004)
  - National Hockey League Hall of Fame (2003)
  - Ellis Island Medal of Honor (1997)
- Locally in Detroit, Mike was honored for his efforts in the community with the Joe Louis Brown Bomber Jacket Award, the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award, the Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award and the Edward H. McNamara Goodfellow of the Year Award. He was also given the key to the city.
- Mike Ilitch was a remarkable American success story. In 2012, he wrote, "Develop a love for all people; be humble; work hard. I guarantee you will be successful in life." He did just that and had a life well lived.

ALL-STAR GAME HISTORY

JULY 8, 1941
AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in All-Star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a Midsummer Classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and a RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with a RBI.

JULY 10, 1951
NATIONAL LEAGUE 8, AMERICAN LEAGUE 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped a then All-Star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in All-Star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing what was then an All-Star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive All-Star games. Stan Musial also established a new All-Star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

JULY 13, 1971
AMERICAN LEAGUE 6, NATIONAL LEAGUE 4

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched a then All-Star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Robinson was named as the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in All-Star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game, playing right field, in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

JULY 12, 2005
AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

The All-Star Game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in All-Star Games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and a RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked two scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th All-Star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

THE TIGERS 20-20 CLUB

Seven players in Tigers history have hit 20 home runs and stolen 20 bases in the same season, including Robbie Grossman, who accomplished the feat in 2021, finishing the season with 23 home runs and 20 stolen bases. Kirk Gibson accomplished the feat four times -- in four years -- and fell just one home run short of being the only Tigers player to reach 30-30 in 1985.

BACK-TO-BACK HOME RUNS IN THE PLAYOFFS

Victor Martinez and J.D. Martinez hit back-to-back home runs for the Tigers in Game 1 of the American League Division Series at Baltimore on October 2, 2014, while J.D. Martinez and Nicholas Castellanos connected for back-to-back home runs in Game Two on October 3, 2014. It marked just the second and third times in franchise history that the Tigers have hit back-to-back homers in the postseason. It also was the first time a team has hit back-to-back home runs in consecutive postseason games since Tampa Bay did so in the 2008 American League Championship Series vs. Boston.

TIGERS IN HALL OF FAME

TY COBB

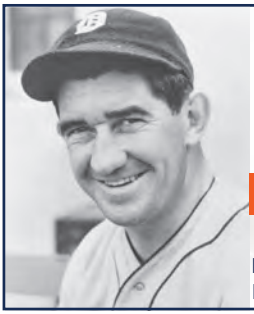

HT: 6-1 WT: 175 BT: L TH: R BORN: 12/18/1886 IN NARROWS, GA

CENTERFIELDER, 1905-26

Full Name: Tyrus Raymond Cobb
Nickname: "The Georgia Peach"
Elected to Hall of Fame: 1936
Died: 7/17/1961 in Atlanta, GA

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame... garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in Major League history.
- His Major League record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years, and single-season Major League record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the Major League record for career runs scored (2,245) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (297) and fourth in doubles (724) and stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tigers teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400-or-better three times (.420, 1911; .410, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in Major League history...one of just two players (Rogers Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Was the Chalmers Award winner (American League Most Valuable Player) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- Won the league batting title in 12 out of 14 seasons from 1907-20.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and led the league in RBI in four of the five years from 1907-11.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both Major Leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), while leading the Tigers to the final of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career with the Tigers, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number, as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

MICKEY COCHRANE

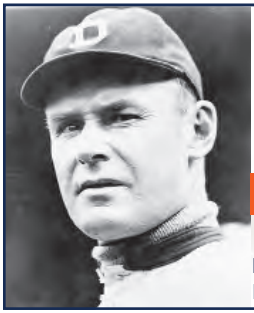

HT: 5-10 WT: 180 BT: L TH: R BORN: 4/6/1903 IN BRIDGEWATER, MA

CATCHER, 1934-37

Full Name: Gordon Stanley Cochrane
Nickname: "Black Mike"
Elected to Hall of Fame: 1947
Died: 6/28/1962 in Lake Forest, IL

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tigers club as player-manager in 1934, leading a turnaround that culminated with Detroit winning back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Series Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 American League Most Valuable Player, after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, led the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game Six to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Navin Field.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally regaining consciousness...although he continued as Tigers manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times during his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and $100,000...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named AL Most Valuable Player in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 Major League seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.
- Wore uniform No. 3 while playing for Detroit.

SAM CRAWFORD

HT: 6-0 WT: 190 BT: L TH: L BORN: 4/18/1880 IN WAHOO, NE

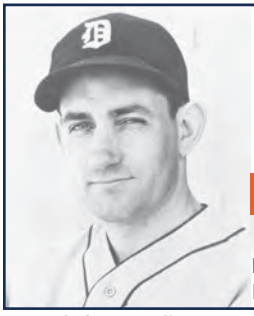

RIGHTFIELDER, 1903-17

Full Name: Samuel Earl Crawford
Nickname: "Wahoo Sam"

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1957
Died: 6/15/1968 in Hollywood, CA

Although he spent most of his career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season, en route to his career record of 309.
- Is the all-time Major League leader in triples, legging out 309 during his career.
- A lifetime .309 hitter, Crawford was known as one of the hardest hitters of the dead-ball era.
- Led the American League in RBI three times, runs scored once and doubles once.
- Finished his career just 39 hits short of 3,000.
- Batted .314 and led the league with 104 RBI and a career-high 26 triples in 1914, finishing runner-up to Philadelphia's Eddie Collins for the Chalmers Award (American League Most Valuable Player).
- Helped the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- His nickname derived from his hometown of Wahoo, NE.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1957.

CHARLIE GEHRINGER

HT: 5-11 WT: 180 BT: L TH: R BORN: 5/11/1903 IN FOWLERVILLE, MI

SECOND BASEMAN, 1924-42

Full Name: Charles Leonard Gehringer
Nickname: "The Mechanical Man"

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1949
Died: 1/21/1993 in Bloomfield Hills, MI

Known for his quiet efficiency, Michigan native Charlie Gehringer was not only the best fielding second baseman of his time, but he also hit for power and average...Ty Cobb, who managed the Tigers during Gehringer's first three seasons, called him, aside from Eddie Collins, "the greatest second baseman (he) ever saw."

- Batted over .300 in 13-of-16 full seasons, had 200-or-more hits seven times and posted a lifetime batting average of .320.
- Named the American League Most Valuable Player in 1937 after hitting a career-high .371 to lead the league...finished runner-up to teammate Mickey Cochrane for the Most Valuable Player award in 1934.
- In 1929, led the American League in eight categories including hits, runs, doubles, triples, stolen bases, games, putouts and fielding percentage.
- Hit 15-or-more home runs in a season six times, and had 100-or-more RBI seven times.
- Drilled 60 doubles in 1936, a Tigers record for a lefthanded hitter.
- Batted .375 and handled 39 chances without an error in the 1935 World Series to help Detroit to the title.
- Member of the American League pennant-winning Tigers clubs in 1934 and 1940.
- Had his uniform No. 2 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Hank Greenberg's No. 5 was retired.
- Served as the Tigers general manager from 1951-53.

HANK GREENBERG

HT: 6-3 WT: 210 BT: R TH: R BORN: 1/1/1911 IN NEW YORK, NY

FIRST BASEMAN, 1930-46

Full Name: Henry Benjamin Greenberg
Nickname: "Hammerin' Hank"

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1956
Died: 9/4/1986 in Beverly Hills, CA

A fearsome run producer and home run hitter, "Hammerin' Hank" Greenberg made the most of a career interrupted by four years of military service during World War II, and another season lost to injury...captured two American League Most Valuable Player awards and a pair of World Series titles.

- Rapped a Tigers record 63 doubles, just four short of the Major League mark, in 1934 in his second full season in the Majors as the Tigers won their first pennant in 25 years.
- Unanimous selection as AL Most Valuable Player in 1935 after leading the league with 36 homers and 170 RBI as the Tigers won their first World Series title, defeating the Chicago Cubs.
- Suffered a broken wrist just 12 games into the 1936 season after beginning the campaign batting .348 with 16 RBI.
- Drove in a career-high 183 runs the next year, one short of Lou Gehrig's 1931 league record.
- In 1938, chased Babe Ruth's 11-year-old single-season home run record (60) before ending the year with a league-best 58 longballs.
- Won AL Most Valuable Player honors again in 1940, his last full season before entering the Army, as he batted a career best .340 and led the league with 50 doubles, 41 home runs and 150 RBI...carried Detroit to its sixth AL pennant.
- Returned from a four-year stint in the Army in July of 1945 and drilled a grand slam on the final day of the season to spur the Tigers back to the World Series...batted .304 with two home runs and seven RBI to lead Detroit past Chicago for its second World Series title.
- Drove in more than 100 runs a total of seven times in his career and hit better than .300 in each of his first seven full seasons, including high marks of .340 in 1940 and .337 in 1937.
- Posted a lifetime slugging percentage of .605, good for seventh-highest in Major League history.
- Completed his brilliant career with one final season in Pittsburgh after being sold by the Tigers to the Pirates on January 18, 1947.
- Had his uniform No. 5 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Charlie Gehringer's No. 2 was retired.

HARRY HEILMANN

HT: 6-1 WT: 195 BT: R TH: R BORN: 8/3/1894 IN SAN FRANCISCO, CA

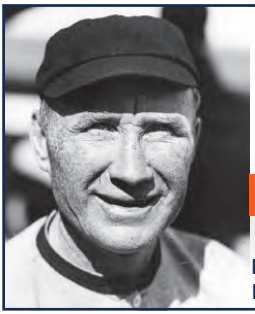

RIGHTFIELDER, 1914-29

Full Name: Harry Edwin Heilmann
Nickname: "Slug"

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1952
Died: 7/9/1951 in Southfield, MI

Rated second only to Rogers Hornsby among righthanded hitters of his era, Harry Heilmann batted .390-or-better four times in his career, including .403 in 1923, to capture a quartet of batting titles.

- Bettered the .400 mark (.403) in 1923 to lead the league, collecting 211 hits and driving in 115 runs...in all, batted .340-or-better eight times.
- Led the American League with 237 hits in 1921 and hit .394 to win his first batting title...also won the league batting crown in 1923, 1925 and 1927.
- From 1921-29, drove in at least 100 runs in eight out of nine seasons...drilled at least 40 doubles in eight of his last 10 seasons as a player.
- In 1927, finished runner-up to the Yankees' Lou Gehrig in AL Most Valuable Player balloting, after hitting .398 and winning his final batting title.
- His 1921 total of 139 RBI would have led the league, but Babe Ruth drove in 171 runs that season...three times he ranked second in the AL in slugging percentage behind Ruth.
- Was sold to the Cincinnati Reds on October 14, 1929, where he played in 1930 and 1932...batted .333 in 1930 with 19 home runs, two off his career best, and 91 RBI.
- After his playing career, broadcasted Tigers games on the radio from 1934-51.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1952.

HUGHIE JENNINGS

HT: 5-8 WT: 165 BT: R TH: R BORN: 4/2/1869 IN PITTSTON, PA

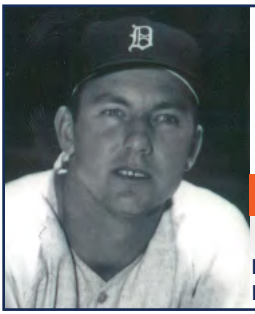

SHORTSTOP/MANAGER, 1907-20

Full Name: Hugh Ambrose Jennings
Nickname: "Hustling Hughie"

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1945
Died: 2/1/1928 in Scranton, PA

Detroit's manager from 1907-1920, Jennings piloted teams which featured all-time greats Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann and Sam Crawford, and he led the Tigers to three consecutive American League pennants from 1907-09.

- An outstanding shortstop in his playing days, had his best years with the National League's Baltimore Orioles between 1893 and 1899...drove in more than 100 runs three times, batted .398 in 1896 and led the league in fielding four times.
- With Detroit, served as player-manager from 1907-1918, although he only appeared in a handful of games and had just nine at-bats in those 12 years...became full-time manager for his final two seasons in a Tigers uniform.
- Although his Tigers won three straight league titles, they lost in the World Series each time, twice to the Cubs and once to the Pirates.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1945.

AL KALINE

HT: 6-2 WT: 180 BT: R TH: R BORN: 12/191934 IN BALTIMORE, MD

RIGHTFIELDER, 1953-74

Full Name: Albert William Kaline
Nickname: "Mr. Tiger"

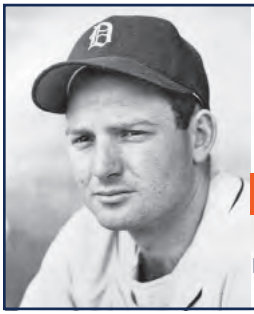

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1980
Died: 4/6/2020 in Bloomfield Hills, MI

If any player defined the Tigers during the last half-century it was Al Kaline, and in 1980, he became just the 10th player ever elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility...at the time of his retirement, Kaline and Ty Cobb were the only Tigers ever to play 20-or-more seasons in a Detroit uniform.

- Runner-up for the American League Most Valuable Player award in 1955 and 1963, finishing second to Yankees catchers Yogi Berra and Elston Howard, respectively...both seasons, despite the vote of the baseball writers, The Sporting News chose Kaline as its Player of the Year.
- Won the league's batting crown in 1955 by batting .340 in just his second full season in the Majors...accomplished the feat at age 20, making him the youngest batting champion in AL history.
- Came back from a broken arm earlier in the season to bat .379 against the Cardinals in the 1968 World Series...had two home runs among his 11 hits in the series and drove in eight runs, furthering his reputation as a tremendous clutch performer.
- Selected to 18 All-Star Games over his career, including 15-of-16 between 1955 and 1967 (selected to two games each season, 1959-61)...selected to the All-Star squad in 1964 and 1967 but did not play due to injury.
- Hit .300-or-better and drilled 20-or-more home runs nine times. each during his career.
- An outstanding defensive player renowned for his powerful arm, he captured 10 Gold Gloves, enjoyed a streak of 242 straight errorless games and played in 16 All-Star games without committing a miscue.
- Spent the 1974 season as a full-time designated hitter and rapped his 3,000th career hit off the Orioles' Dave McNally that season, making him the first American Leaguer since Eddie Collins in 1925 to reach that milestone.
- Ended his career with 3,007 hits, breaking Al Simmons' 30-year-old American League record for hits by a righthanded batter.
- Also posted 399 career home runs while maintaining a .297 lifetime batting average.
- Had his No. 6 retired by the Tigers on August 17, 1980, making him the first Tigers player ever to have his number retired.
- Has spent every year since 1976 in the Tigers organization, first as a television color analyst (1976-2001) and more recently as a Special Assistant to the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager.

KALINE WINS BATTING TITLE AT AGE 20

In 1955, Hall-of-Famer Al Kaline had one of the best seasons of his career at the age of 20. That season, he became the youngest player ever to win the American League batting crown -- besting the immortal Ty Cobb by one day -- and took the title in the American League by 21 points with a career-best .340 batting average. In fact, his batting avearge led the entire Major Leagues, ending up two points better than Richie Ashburn of the Phillies, who won the National League crown. Kaline registered a career-high 200 hits, hit 27 home runs and drove in 102 runs that year. He wound up second in the American League Most Valuable Player balloting, finishing 17 points behind Yankees catcher Yogi Berra.

GEORGE KELL

HT: 5-9 WT: 175 BT: R TH: R BORN: 8/23/1922 IN SWIFTON, AR

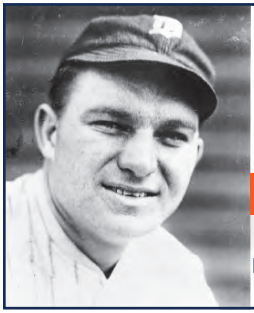

THIRD BASEMAN, 1946-52

Full Name: George Clyde Kell

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1983
Died: 3/24/2009 in Swifton, AR

The American League's foremost third baseman in the 1940s and '50s, George Kell is one of just 17 third basemen enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

- Won the 1949 American League batting crown with a .343 average, nosing out Boston's Ted Williams on the final day of the season.
- Selected to 10 All-Star Games, including eight straight between 1947 and 1954.
- Batted over .300 nine times and led the AL in hits in 1950 and 1951...also led the league in doubles both seasons.
- Was acquired by the Tigers on May 18, 1946, from the Philadelphia Athletics in exchange for outfielder Barney McCoskey.
- In seven seasons with the Tigers from 1946-52, he batted below .300 just once, in 1952, when he was traded to the Red Sox 39 games into the season.
- Known for sure hands and a strong, accurate arm, he led AL third basemen in fielding percentage seven times.
- Wore uniform No. 21 from 1946-50 and No. 7 in 1951-52 with the Tigers.
- Was included in an eight-player trade on June 3, 1952, in which he, Dizzy Trout, Hoot Evers and Johnny Lipon were sent from the Tigers to Boston in exchange for Johnny Pesky, Walt Dropo, Bill Wight, Fred Hatfield and Don Lenhardt.
- Also played for the White Sox and Orioles before retiring in 1957.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1983.
- Began broadcasting full-time after retiring as a player, and, except for 1964, called Tigers baseball every year from 1959-96...retired from broadcasting in January, 1997.

HEINIE MANUSH

HT: 6-1 WT: 200 BT: L TH: L BORN: 7/20/1901 IN TUSCUMBIA, AL

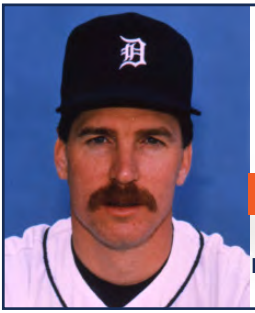

LEFTFIELDER, 1923-27

Full Name: Henry Emmett Manush

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1964
Died: 5/12/1971 in Sarasota, FL

A lifetime .330 hitter, outfielder Heinie Manush played for six teams over 17 seasons, but entered the Hall of Fame as a Detroit Tiger after playing his first five years with the club.

- Played his first three seasons in the big leagues for manager Ty Cobb and won his lone batting title in 1926 under Cobb's tutelage, batting .378...overtook Babe Ruth by going six-for-nine in a doubleheader on the last day of the season.
- In 1928, his first season with the St. Louis Browns, collected 241 hits, just 16 short of George Sisler's 1920 Major League record...again batted .378 but lost the batting title by a single point to Washington's Goose Goslin.
- Topped the 200-hit mark four times in his career...also posted 40-or-more doubles six times, leading the league in 1928 and 1929, and topped the American League with 17 triples in 1933.
- Finished as runner-up to Jimmie Foxx for the batting title in 1933 after hitting .336...was selected to his only All-Star game in 1934.
- In 7,654 career at-bats, fanned just 345 times (never more than 30 times in a season).
- Was traded from Detroit to the St. Louis Browns on Dec. 2, 1927, along with Lu Blue in exchange for Chick Galloway, Elam Vangilder and Harry Rice.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1964.

JACK MORRIS

HT: 6-3 WT: 195 BT: R TH: R BORN: 5/16/1955 IN ST. PAUL, MN

RIGHTHANDED PITCHER, 1977-90

Full Name: John Scott Morris Elected to Hall of Fame: 2017

One of seven players in Major League history to win a World Series with three different teams, Jack Morris was among the top pitchers in the Majors in the 1980s and into the early 1990s.

- Earned five All-Star selections during his career, was named the American League Babe Ruth Award winner in 1984 and 1991 and was selected the AL Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News in 1981...finished in the top five in AL Cy Young Award voting four times.
- Spent 14 of his 18 Major League seasons in a Tigers uniform, pitching in 430 games, including 408 starts, and compiling a 198-150 record with a 3.73 ERA (3042.2IP/1262ER) and 1980 strikeouts...he ranks second in franchise history in games started, third in strikeouts, fourth in innings pitched, fifth in wins, eighth in complete games (154) and shutouts (24) and ninth in appearances.
- Helped the Tigers to the 1984 World Series championship, making three starts in the postseason and going 3-0, including two complete game victories in the Fall Classic.
- Following his 14 years in Detroit, he went to Minnesota, where he led the Twins to the 1991 World Series title...won MVP honors after tossing 10.0 shutout innings in Game 7 vs. Atlanta.
- Pitched for Toronto in 1992-93, winning World Series championships in both seasons.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Modern Baseball Era Committee in December, 2017.
- On August 12, 2018, he became the seventh Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 47).

SPARKY'S LEGACY HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

On July 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises. Additionally, he was the first manager to lead teams from both leagues to a World Series title and to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues.

The Tigers retired Anderson's number 11 as part of a ceremony on June 26, 2011.

HAL NEWHOUSER

HT: 6-2 WT: 192 BT: L TH: L BORN: 5/20/1921 IN DETROIT, MI

LEFTHANDED PITCHER, 1939-53

Full Name: Harold Newhouser
Nickname: "Prince Hal"
Elected to Hall of Fame: 1992
Died: 11/10/1998 in Bloomfield Hills, MI

The only pitcher in Major League history to win back-to-back league Most Valuable Player awards, Hal Newhouser, Detroit born-and-raised, was one of the most dominant pitchers of the 1940s.

- Captured his first Most Valuable Player award in 1944 after leading the Majors with a 29-9 record and 187 strikeouts... his 29 victories tied George Mullin's 1909 club record.
- Named Most Valuable Player again the following season, becoming just the third American League pitcher to lead baseball in wins (25), ERA (1.81) and strikeouts (212) all in the same season...his 29 complete games, eight shutouts and 313.1 innings pitched also led the Majors.
- Spent 15 of his 17 big league seasons in a Tigers uniform and during that span was a seven-time All-Star... led the American League in victories four times, led the league in strikeouts and ERA twice each and hurled back-to-back 300-plus inning seasons in 1944 and 1945.
- From 1944-48, won 20-or-more games in four of the five years and rode his explosive fastball to a total of 118 wins, 107 complete games and 993 strikeouts...also allowed just 40 home runs and twice posted an ERA under 2.00 during that span.
- Retired in 1955 after two seasons as a reliever with Cleveland.
- On July 27, 1997, he became the fourth Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 16).
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1992.

ALAN TRAMMELL

HT: 6-0 WT: 165 BT: R TH: R BORN: 2/21/1958 IN GARDEN GROVE, CA

SHORTSTOP, 1977-96

Full Name: Alan Stuart Trammell
Nickname: "Tram"
Elected to Hall of Fame: 2017

One of the best shortstops of his generation, Alan Trammell spent all 20 seasons of his Major League career in a Tigers uniform, joining Ty Cobb and Al Kaline as the only players in franchise history to spend the entirety of their 20-plus year career in the Olde English 'D'.

- Hit .300-or-better in seven seasons and finished his career with 2,365 hits, 412 doubles and a .285 career batting average.
- Earned six All-Star Game selections, four Gold Glove Awards at shortstop and three Silver Slugger Awards.
- Led the Tigers to the 1984 World Series Championship, earning Most Valuable Player honors after hitting .450 with two home runs and six RBI over the five-game series.
- Enjoyed the best season of his professional career in 1987, when he finished second in the voting for American League Most Valuable Player after posting career bests with a .343 batting average, 205 hits, 28 home runs and 105 RBI, while leading the Tigers to the AL East Division title.
- Became the 35th manager in Tigers history in October, 2002 and was the team's manager from 2003-05.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Modern Baseball Era Committee in December 2017.
- On August 26, 2018, he became the eighth Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 3).

STEARNES' STAR SHINES AT HALL OF FAME

Norman "Turkey" Stearnes, a standout slugger for the Detroit Stars of the Negro League, earned his spot in baseball history as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000. Stearnes, a gifted outfielder and powerful hitter, played for the Stars from 1923-30 and in 1937, and he also played with several other Negro League teams. Legendary Negro League player Satchel Paige was quoted as saying that "Turkey Stearnes was one of the greatest hitters we ever had...he was as good as anybody who ever played baseball."

Following his successful career in baseball, Stearnes and his wife, Nettie, stayed in Detroit. Stearnes could almost always be found at Tigers home games before he passed away on September 7, 1979 at the age of 78. Nettie Stearnes and the Stearnes' family, friends and former teammates were tireless in their efforts to have Turkey's accomplishments rightfully recognized with the sport's highest honor. In 2000, Turkey Stearnes' legacy was finally given its due recognition with his induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

TIGERS RETIRED NUMBERS

HARWELL ENSHRINED IN COOPERSTOWN

Ernie Harwell retired as the Tigers play-by-play radio announcer following the 2002 season, his 55th season in Major League Baseball and his 42nd calling Tigers baseball.

He received the Ford C. Frick Award in 1981, presented by the Baseball Hall of Fame for broadcasting excellence. Harwell was the fifth recipient of the honor, becoming the first active broadcaster to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Harwell was named the play-by-play broadcaster for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948, his first Major League appointment. After two seasons with the Dodgers, he moved on to play-by-play work for the Giants and Orioles before coming to Detroit in 1960. He was at the microphone for Bobby Thompson's historic playoff home run in 1951, marking the first coast-to-coast telecast of a major sporting event.

He served as the Tigers radio play-by-play voice from 1960-91, before broadcasting games for Tigers television from 1993-98. Harwell returned to the radio booth for the final season at Tiger Stadium in 1999.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Detroit's Al Kaline won the award in 1973 and other past winners include Curtis Granderson, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Freddie Freeman, Yadier Molina, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Ozzie Smith

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

• Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies.
• Season credentials will be issued only to those agencies that cover the Tigers on a regular basis...these credentials will be laminated with photos and must be worn in a visible manner at all times at Comerica Park.
• Those not qualifying for season credentials can be considered for daily access.
• All requests for credentials must be made online at credentials.mlb.com.
• Daily credentials must be requested at least 24 hours in advance of the game to be covered.
• Credentials will be issued to online services that meet all of the following criteria:

(1) Is part of a national news gathering agency.
(2) Reaches a broad audience.
(3) Produces original content.
(4) Has an established record of developing original content.

• The Ernie Harwell Media Center and parking provided by the club is for use by working media ONLY...credentials are not transferable.
• Credentialed media are prohibited from requesting autographs or photos with uniformed personnel on the field or in the clubhouse with any violation resulting in immediate revocation of the credential.
• Daily credentials will be available at the media entrance located on the corner of John R. and Montcalm street four hours before the scheduled first pitch.
• No credentials will be mailed.
• Failure to follow any of the guidelines listed and any unprofessional conduct will result in immediate revocation of the credential.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

Media may enter Comerica Park through the media entrance, located at the corner of John R. and Montcalm street, across from the McLaren Garage.

PARKING

A limited number of digital parking codes for the McLaren Garage will be set aside for use by media on a daily basis. Please email the Tigers Communications office for more information.
• The McLaren Garage will close two hours after the Tigers clubhouse closes.

ERNIE HARWELL MEDIA CENTER

The Ernie Harwell Media Center is located on the lower suite level behind home plate. Access to press areas is by ramp or stairs (to the third-base side of home plate) only.
• When appropriate, seating charts will be posted, and some seats will be permanently reserved for the regular season. Please contact a Tigers Communications representative for assistance with seating location.
• The media center includes a designated, partitioned area for broadcast media located on the first-base side of the media center.
• A limited quantity of printed game information will be available on the back counter of the media center approximately two hours before game time. However, all game-related documents can be accessed at mlbpressbox.com. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and post-game notes will be available on pressbox and emailed to credentialed media following the game.

CLUBHOUSES

Entrance to both clubhouses is on the Comerica Park service level, accessible by media elevator, ramp or stairs. The Tigers clubhouse is located behind third base, while the visitor's clubhouse is behind first base.
• Pre- and post-game access rules are those issued by Major League Baseball.
• In order to have access to the Tigers clubhouse, media must be "up to date" on their vaccines and have submitted proof of vaccination to the Tigers Communications Department.
  • "Up to date" on vaccinations is defined as:
    • Two weeks after the second Pfizer/Moderna vaccine shot or two weeks after the Johnson & Johnson shot.
    • AND they have received a booster dose of either Pfizer or Moderna, if eligible.
• Per MLB media regulations, members of the media are required to wear masks while in the clubhouse. Masks are not required in outdoor spaces.
• All still photography is prohibited in the Tigers clubhouse without prior consent from the Tigers Communications Department.
• All video via mobile phone is prohibited in the Tigers clubhouse at all times. Please refer to Major League Baseball's regular season club/media regulations, section 14 for more information.
• Tweeting and texting are prohibited during the manager pre- and post-game media availabilities. The manager will speak to the media in the dugout prior to the game and in Interview Room 1 post-game.

PRE-GAME FIELD ACCESS

Only media with credentials permitting field access will be allowed on the Comerica Park playing field. All media must clear the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch, unless given permission from the Tigers Communications Department to cover an on-field, pre-game ceremony. Media may only access the field through the home plate umpire tunnel.

TELEVISION COVERAGE

All local television stations are prohibited from shooting and distributing footage inside Comerica Park beginning 60 minutes prior to each contest and continuing until 30 minutes after the game has ended.
• Footage from Comerica Park property and the concourse area are permitted as long as the playing field does not appear in any way in the shot.
• Television cameras on and around field level are limited to natural light whenever players are on the field.
• All local television stations desiring to shoot inside Comerica Park must request to do so in advance through the Tigers Communications Department.

Only those with credentials expressly permitting in-game field access will be allowed in the photo wells. Two photo wells are located adjacent to each dugout, one on the infield side and one on the outfield side of each.
• In-game access is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. Enter and exit the field via the home plate entrance only.
• All photographers must be inside the photo wells at all times.
• While the game is in progress, photographers on the field may only change location between innings. Those photographers on the field who change location at any other time without prior approval from the Tigers Communications Department are subject to immediate revocation of credentials.
• The installation and placement of parabolic microphones and remote equipment is limited to camera wells and must not interfere or block any club video operations. All equipment must remain in the wells and not extend out toward the playing field.
• No ball — in play or dead — should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy/ballgirl.

MEDIA HOSPITALITY

Media hospitality is in the dining room, located in the back of the Ernie Harwell Media Center. There is a charge per meal.
• Open for meal service to accredited media members two hours before first pitch.

MEDIA GUIDES

Tigers media guides, along with all Major League Baseball publications and media guides of the other 29 teams are available on mlbpressbox.com to accredited media.

CREDENCIALES

• Las credenciales se emitirán únicamente a agencias legítimas de noticias.
• Las credenciales de temporada se emitirán sólo a aquellas agencias que cubren a los Tigres de manera regular. Estas credenciales serán laminadas y con foto y deberán usarse de manera visible en todo momento en Comerica Park.
• Aquellos que no cualifiquen para credenciales de temporada pueden ser considerados para credenciales de acceso diario.
• Todas las solicitudes de credenciales deben realizarse en línea en credentials.mlb.com.
• Las credenciales diarias deben solicitarse al menos 24 horas antes del juego que se va a cubrir.
• Se emitirán credenciales para los servicios en línea que cumplan con todos los siguientes criterios:

(1) Es parte de una agencia de noticias nacional.
(2) Llega a una amplia audiencia.
(3) Produce contenido original.
(4) Tiene un historial establecido de producción de contenido original.

• El Ernie Harwell Media Center y el estacionamiento facilitado por el equipo son para uso de los representantes de los medios de comunicación ÚNICAMENTE. Las credenciales no son transferibles.
• Los representantes de los medios con credenciales tienen prohibido solicitar autógrafos o fotos con personal uniformado en el campo o en el clubhouse, siendo la violación de esta norma resultante en la revocación inmediata de la credencial.
• Las credenciales diarias estarán disponibles tres horas y media antes del primer lanzamiento en el vestíbulo de prensa designado, el cual está ubicado en la esquina de las calles John R. y Montcalm.
• No se enviarán credenciales por correo postal.
• El incumplimiento de cualquiera de estas normas y cualquier conducta no profesional puede resultar en la revocación inmediata de la credencial.

ENTRADA DE PRENSA

Los representantes de los medios de comunicación pueden ingresar a Comerica Park a través de la entrada de prensa, ubicada en la esquina de John R. y Montcalm street, frente al Garage D.

ESTACIONAMIENTO

Una cantidad limitada de códigos digitales de estacionamiento para el Garage D será reservada para uso diario de los medios de comunicación. Por favor, envíe un correo electrónico a la oficina de Comunicaciones de los Tigres para obtener más información.
• El Garage D cerrará dos horas después de que se cierre el clubhouse posterior al juego.

ERNIE HARWELL MEDIA CENTER

El Ernie Harwell Media Center está ubicado en el nivel inferior de suites, detrás del home plate. El acceso a las áreas de prensa es por rampa o escaleras (al lado de la tercera base) únicamente.
• Se publicarán cartillas de asientos y algunos asientos se reservarán permanentemente para la temporada regular. Comuníquese con un representante de Comunicaciones de los Tigres para obtener ayuda con la ubicación de los asientos.
• No se permiten fotografías en el palco de prensa sin la aprobación previa del Departamento de Comunicaciones de los Tigres.
• El centro de medios incluye un área designada con particiones para medios audiovisuales ubicada en el lado de la primera base del centro de medios.
• Una cantidad limitada de información impresa estará disponible en la parte posterior del Media Center aproximadaente dos horas antes de que comience el juego. Sin embargo, todos los documentos relacionados con el juego pueden ser descargados en mlbpressbox.com. Box scores, hojas de anotación y notas post juego estarán disponibles pressbox.com y enviadas por correo electrónico a los miembros de la prensa luego de terminado el juego.

CLUBHOUSES

La entrada a ambos clubhouses se encuentra en el nivel de servicio de Comerica Park, accesible mediante elevador de medios, rampa o escaleras. El clubhouse de los Tigres está ubicado detrás de la tercera base, mientras que el visitante está detrás de la primera base.
• Las reglas para el acceso de la prensa a los clubhouses son las emitidas por Major League Baseball
Para tener acceso al clubhouse de los Tigres, los miembros de la prensa deben estar "al día" en sus vacunas y haber enviado prueba de vacunación al Departamento de Comunicaciones de los Tigres.

• Por "al día" se entiende:
  • Que hayan pasado dos semanas después de la última vacuna de Pfizer-Moderna o dos semanas después de la vacuna de Johnson & Johnson.
  • Y que hayan recibido el refuerzo de la vacuna de Pfizer o Moderna, en caso de que sea posible.

• Por normas de MLB, los miembros de la prensa deben usar tapabocas mientras estén en el clubhouse. Los tapabocas no son necesarios en espacios abiertos.
• Las fotografías están prohibidas en el clubhouse de los Tigres sin el consentimiento del Departamento de Comunicaciones del equipo.
• Está prohibido en todo momento hacer videos con el teléfono móvil. Para más información, por favor revise el reglamento de prensa y equipos de temporada regular de MLB, específicamente e la sección 14.
• Twitear y enviar mensajes de texto están prohibidos mientras el mánager está atendiendo a los medios de comunicación. El mánager va a atender a la prensa en el dugout antes de los juegos y en la Sala de Entrevistas 1 después de los juegos.

ACCESO AL TERRENO ANTES DEL JUEGO

Sólo los miembros de la prensa con credenciales que les permitan estar en el terreno tendrán permitido estar en el terreno de juego en Comerica Park. Todos los miembros de la prensa deben abandonar el terreno 30 minutos antes del inicio del juego, a menos que el Departamento de Comunicaciones les autorice cubrir las ceremonias previas al juego en el terreno. La prensa sólo puede entrar al terreno a través del túnel de umpires ubicado detras del home plate.

COBERTURA DE TELEVISIÓN

Todas las estaciones locales de televisión tienen prohibido grabar y distribuir imágenes dentro de Comerica Park a partir de 60 minutos antes de cada juego y a hasta 30 minutos después de culminado el juego.
• Se permiten imágenes de la propiedad de Comerica Park y el área del pasillo principal siempre que el campo de juego no aparezca de ninguna manera en la toma.
• Las cámaras de televisión en y alrededor del nivel del campo están limitadas a la luz natural si hay jugadores en el terreno.
• Todas las estaciones de televisión locales que deseen grabar dentro de Comerica Park deben solicitarlo con anticipación a través del Departamento de Comunicaciones de los Tigres.

ACCESO AL TERRENO/CAJONES DE FOTÓGRAFOS

Sólo aquellos con credenciales que les permitan expresamente acceso al terreno de juego durante el partido tendrán permitido estar en los cajones de fotógrafos.
Dos cajones de fotógrafos están ubicados adyacentes a cada dugout, uno del lado del infield y otro del lado del outfield.
• El acceso durante el juego está limitado a los fotógrafos y personal con derecho de transmisión del juego. La entrada y salida del terreno es a través de la puerta detrás del home plate sólamente.
• Todos los fotógrafos deben estar en los cajones de fotógrafos en todo momento.
• Mientras se desarrolla el juego, los fotógrafos solo pueden cambiar de ubicación entre innings. Aquel fotógrafo que cambie de ubicación en cualquier otro momento sin la aprobación del Departamento de Comunicaciones de los Tigres están sujetos a la revocatoria de su credencial.
• La instalación de micrófonos parabólicos y equipos remotos está limitado a los cajones de fotógrafos y no debe interferir u obstaculizar ninguna operación de video del equipo. Todo el equipamiento debe permanecer en los cajones y no extenderse hacia el terreno de juego.
• Ninguna pelota, en juego o muerta, debe ser manejada por nadie que no sea un recogepelotas.

COMEDOR DE PRENSA

El comedor de prensa está ubicado en la parte posterior del Ernie Harwell Media Center. Hay un costo por comida.
• El comedor estará abierto para atender a la prensa dos horas antes del juego.

GUÍA DE MEDIOS

Las guías de medios de los Tigres, junto con todas las publicaciones de Major League Baseball y las guías de medios de los otros 29 equipos, están disponibles en mlbpressbox.com para los medios acreditados.

RON COLANGELO

Ron Colangelo enters his 31st year in professional sports and 14th season with the Tigers after joining the ballclub on June 16, 2008.

• Oversees strategic communications for the club's business and baseball operations departments.
• Works directly with ownership and corporate communications team, Group President of Sports and Entertainment, Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager and management team on messaging and positioning for the organization.
• Responsible for day-to-day media and public relations and marketing communications driving business value for the club's marketing, digital, community and sales initiatives, and building brand equity beyond traditional media outlets.
• Developed framwork and executed plan to bring first-ever global soccer match to Comerica Park and The District Detroit, AS Roma vs. Paris Saint-Germain as part of International Champions Cup.
• Is primary spokesperson on business and public affairs and crisis communications issues.
• Identifies storylines and creates original content that drive the club's narrative across broadcast and social platforms.
• Served as the Vice President of Public Relations for the NFL's New York Jets from 2002-07 where he was the club's spokesperson and responsible for communicating the team's image in the marketplace, collaborating with social media, marketing partnerships, ticket operations, broadcasting, and community and alumni relations.
• Spent six seasons with the Florida Marlins, serving as Vice President of Communications after his promotion from Director of Baseball Information and Publicity...directed media operations for the 1997 World Series Champions.
• Worked three seasons with the NHL's Florida Panthers...joined the club prior to their inaugural 1993 season as a media relations associate and developed programs and intitiatives to introduce hockey to Southeast Florida.
• Began his career in Minor League baseball with the West Palm Beach Expos where he served as radio play-by-play announcer, while also overseeing media relations and sales from 1990-93.
• Earned a bachelor's degree in communications from William Paterson University...also attended Arizona State University.
• Has run eight marathons, including Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, Miami, New York City and San Diego.
• He and wife, Sandra, have a daughter, Catalina, a son, Nicolas, and he has a son, Ryan. They have two rescue dogs, Gigi and Pablo.

CHAD CRUNK

Chad Crunk enters his ninth season in the Tigers organization and his fifth as the team's Director, Communications after being named to the position in October, 2017. He joined the club in January, 2014 and served four years as the team's Manager of Media Relations. In his role, he supervises all day-to-day efforts of baseball-related media relations, including the coordination of interviews with Tigers baseball executives, the manager, players and coaches, the production of game notes, all player-related announcements and the media guide and season review publications. Additionally, he assists with the Tigers Magazine and Yearbook and updates the department's official Twitter account (@DetroitTigersPR).

Chad joined the Tigers after spending three years as an assistant communications director at the University of Arkansas, where he served as the primary media contact for the Razorbacks' baseball team and was the No. 3 media contact for the Arkansas football program. He handled media publicity for the 2012 Razorback baseball team, which advanced to the College World Series and finished the season with a No. 3 national ranking. Additionally, he worked in the athletic department at Wake Forest University and Vanderbilt University. The University of Kentucky alum graduated summa cum laude in December, 2006 with a BS in journalism.

A native of Hopkinsville, KY, Chad currently resides in Detroit.

BEN FIDELMAN

Ben Fidelman enters his sixth season with the Tigers, and third as the club's Manager of Communications. His responsibilities include both baseball and business communications, playing a significant role in the club's player relations, baseball information and brand/reputation management processes at both the day-to-day and advanced planning levels. Additionally, he travels with the team during spring training, the regular season and for post season games.

Ben serves as one of the Tigers lead researchers and authors for baseball information (game notes, media guide, and historic milestones and club records), with the goal of identifying storylines on the field, in the clubhouse and in the front office to earn impactful coverage of the club on owned and earned media channels. Fidelman also plays a key role in the club's player relations, engaging with the organization's players at all levels to help grow their brands through public and private communications platforms. Since joining the club in 2017, he has been the main point of contact for the club's player development system, which has ascended in organizational farm system rankings from near last in the league to No. 2 entering the 2021 season (per MLB Pipeline).

He's also an integral part of the club's strategic and business communications, working in tandem with the Vice President of Communications across all verticals of the front office to conceptualize and execute public relations campaigns to protect and grow the brand of the Detroit Tigers.

Prior to joining the Tigers, he was an intern with Major League Baseball at the Office of the Commissioner and Major League Baseball Advanced Media. Fidelman, 27, graduated from the University of Michigan in 2017 with a B.A. in Sport Management, and is a native of St. Joseph, MI.

CARLOS GUILLÉN ALTUVE

Carlos Guillén Altuve enters his fourth season as the club's Bilingual Media Relations Coordinator, after being named to the position in February 2019. He assists with the day-to-day efforts of the department, including production of game notes, statistical research and player relations. He also serves as the team's Interpreter, helping Latin players to address local, national and international media. He also serves as the liaison between Spanish-speaking uniformed personnel and the front office.

Carlos joined the Tigers after spending one season as Assistant in the Media Relations Department with the New York Mets. Previously he worked as a host on ESPN Deportes Miami and as correspondent for international news outlets such as CNN, RCN, and NTN24. Carlos spent ten seasons as Media Relations Coordinator with Leones del Caracas. He graduated from University Santa María in the summer of 2004, with a B.S. in Journalism. Born and raised in Caracas, Venezuela, he currently resides in Detroit. He and his wife, María Carolina, have a daughter, Alejandra.

STAN FRACKER

Stan Fracker will begin his ninth full season with the Tigers as Director, Broadcasting and In-Game Entertainment after joining the organization during the 2013 postseason. He serves as the direct contact and liaison for the Tigers broadcast partners and national rightsholders throughout the year, overseeing all aspects of Detroit Tigers radio and TV game broadcasts, including national and international broadcasts from Comerica Park. He is also responsible for in-game entertainment, including video production for Comerica Park's industry-leading scoreboard, as well as ancillary ribbon boards. Stan serves as the executive producer for team video content on YouTube and Tigers TV, a channel of programming available on tigers.com offering highlight videos, interviews and inside-access features, while also overseeing internal video production, including marketing and presentation videos.

In 2019, the Tigers video production team received the franchise's first ever Emmy Award for the production of "Call to the Hall", a documentary-style show profiling the Hall of Fame careers of Alan Trammell and Jack Morris. In recent years, Tigers in-game entertainment has received 5 IDEA Golden Matrix Award nominations, winning a GMA in 2018 for Best Open Video.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Stan was the Executive Producer for the Detroit Pistons, overseeing video production for broadcast, internet and advertising. In 16 seasons, he received 20 Emmy Awards for live sports producing, sports editing, commercial production and long-format show production. Additionally, he earned national recognition with two IDEA Golden Matrix Awards for video board production. He launched his professional career as the weekend news anchor at WBKB-TV in Alpena, MI. The Western Michigan University alum graduated in 1996 with a B.S. in broadcast/cable production.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in Oxford, MI, with their two boys, Ben and Charlie.

DAN DICKERSON

Veteran Michigan sports announcer Dan Dickerson returns for his 23rd season in the booth and his 20th season as the lead play-by-play voice of the Tigers. Dan made his Tigers debut in 2000, working alongside Hall of Fame broadcaster, Ernie Harwell.

• Dickerson does play-by-play for Bally Sports Detroit in the offseason, covering the MHSAA High School Football Championships and Big Ten Hockey.

• Dan also teaches a short course on play-by-play at Michigan State University each winter. Dan's wife, Lori Anne, is a Journalism Professor at MSU.

• Dan is co-host, along with Pat Caputo, of "Tiger Talk," a weekly offseason talk show on WXYT that focuses on Tigers news and baseball hot stove topics.

• Dickerson previously worked five years with former Tigers flagship radio station WJR, where he did a little bit of everything: play-by-play for University of Michigan football and basketball, sideline reporter for UM football, sports reporter, and co-host of "Sportswrap," with the talented Steve Courtney.

• Spent six-and-a-half years with Detroit's WWJ-AM from 1988-95, hosting a post-game call-in show following Detroit Lions broadcasts and serving as a sideline reporter for University of Michigan football...also anchored WWJ's news and sports on the weekends and served as a general assignment news reporter.

• Dan began his sports broadcasting career at WCUZ Radio in Grand Rapids, MI, working at the station from 1982-88 in both news and sports.

• Started in radio in 1980 with WMAX radio in Grand Rapids, covering general assignment news and anchoring afternoon newscasts.

• Named the 2016 Ernie Harwell Lifetime Achievement Award winner by Detroit Sports Media.

• Won the 2008 Ty Tyson Excellence in Sports Broadcasting Award, named after the Tigers pioneer broadcaster, Ty Tyson, and is awarded annually by Detroit Sports Media.

• Named Michigan Sportscaster of the Year in 2005, 2006 and 2014 by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

• Earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1980.

• Resides in Clarkston, MI with wife, Lori Anne...the couple have two children, Rachel, 27, and Justin, 24.

• Dickerson is available on Twitter @Dan_Dickerson.

JIM PRICE

A member of the Tigers 1968 World Series Championship Team, Jim Price begins his 30th season overall on Tigers broadcasts and his 24th full season on the Tigers Radio Network.

• Originally joined Frank Beckmann on the Tigers radio broadcasts in June, 1998...had spent the first part of that season as a feature reporter on FOX Sports Net's pre-game and "Tigers Weekly" programs.

• Began his Tigers broadcasting career on PASS cable telecasts in 1993, serving as play-by-play announcer...broadcast Tigers games on cable for five seasons.

• Was also the third man in the booth during the Tigers over-the-air broadcasts on WKBD-TV from 1995-97...filled in for a handful of games as play-by-play announcer in 1997.

• Other broadcast credits include work as play-by-play man on Chicago White Sox cable telecasts, color commentary for ESPN college baseball and anchoring weekend sports on Detroit's WJBK-TV.

• Assisted in the Tigers front office efforts, focusing on baseball participation camps...joined the organization in 1992 as the Director of Community Relations.

• Played five Major League seasons, all with the Tigers...played 64 games, 42 of them at catcher, for the 1968 team that defeated St. Louis in the Fall Classic.

• Had his contract purchased by the Tigers in April of 1967 after seven Minor League seasons with the Pirates.

• Named Minor League Player of the Year in 1963 while with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization.

• A native of Harrisburg, PA, he was a three-sport star at Hershey (PA) High School...refused a number of college football scholarship offers to sign with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1960.

• Inducted into the Kinston (NC) Baseball Hall of Fame in 1995, the Hershey High School Hall of Fame in 2006 and the Central Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 2008.

• He and his wife, Lisa, founded a not-for-profit foundation called JACK'S PLACE For Autism in October of 2002 to benefit children with autism...the foundation, named after their son who was diagnosed with autism, works to provide services for individuals and families affected by the neurological disorder.

• Because of the tremendous community and corporate support, the foundation's five-year plan was reached in a little over a year...JACK'S PLACE For Autism partnered with Oakland University in Rochester, MI from 2004-08... JACK'S PLACE began to deliver programming and services to individuals and families living with Autism Spectrum Disorder, including soccer, basketball, swimming, baseball, arts and theater...programs also included family counseling, sibling groups, social skills groups, seminars and training sessions for parents, caregivers, physicians, teachers and counselors...To date over 11,000 children and adults throughout the State of Michigan have participated in JACK'S PLACE programs now delivered from Southfield, MI, and with many partners including The YMCA , Indian Trails Camp, Easter Seals and Center for Exceptional Families, ARC of Macomb to name just a few. JACK'S PLACE continues to develop a facility that will house "Quality of Life" programming and a long-term living environment, the first of its kind in the country...the Detroit Tigers in partnership with JACK'S PLACE host one of the longest running Autism Awareness Days in MLB. The Prices have also been honored to be the recipients of the Alvin Foon Humanitarian Award presented by the Michigan Jewish Sports Foundation and Spirit of St. Nicholas Award presented by the St. Nicholas Institute.

LOWRY REMEMBERED WITH TIGERS MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Detroit Tigers family suffered a tragic loss during the 1997 season when Jamestown Jammers manager Dwight Lowry collapsed and died suddenly at his home in Jamestown, NY, on July 10.

Shortly after Lowry's death, the Tigers renamed their annual Player Development Man of the Year Award in his honor.

Lowry, who was 39 at the time of his death, had been tabbed the club's inaugural Player Development Man of the Year in 1996 after leading the Single A Fayetteville Generals to a second-half division title and a South Atlantic League postseason berth.

Lowry was in his fourth season as a manager in the Tigers Minor League system and he had also spent parts of four seasons as a player with Detroit, including the 1984 World Championship campaign. Lowry is survived by his wife, Pamela, and children Sesilie, Amanda and Zachary.

KENNY GRAHAM

Director, Player Development

Entering his third season with the Tigers, Graham serves as the Director of Player Development. His major focus is on hitting development and strategies, establishing an organization-wide hitting protocol with a focus on utilizing data and technology to aid growth and performance.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Graham spent the previous three seasons as the Minor League hitting coordinator for Milwaukee. Before that he spent seven seasons in various Minor League roles in Toronto's system, including as the co-hitting coordinator (2015) and hitting coach at Single A Lansing (2012-13, 2015), Single A Bluefield (2011) and Single A Auburn (2010). He also managed the organization's Gulf Coast League affiliate in 2014 and served as the hitting coach for the Independent League's Gary RailCats for two seasons (2008-09).

He attended Indiana University and was an outfielder on the baseball team before moving into coaching at the University of Indianapolis as the hitting coach, while receiving his Masters Degree in Curriculum and Instruction.

EUCLIDES ROJAS

Director, Latin American Player Development

Rojas joins the Tigers for his first season, following a nine-year stint (2011-19) as Pittsburgh's Major League bullpen coach. Under his leadership the Pirates relief corps posted a 3.58 ERA (4882.0IP/1943ER) and converted 69.7% of its saves, both marks ranking fourth in the Major Leagues over that span.

Prior to joining the Major League staff, Rojas spent six seasons as Pittsburgh's Latin American field coordinator (2005-10) and as a roving minor league instructor in 2002 with an emphasis on the club's Latin American program. Other stops during his coaching career came in Boston (Major League bullpen coach, 2003-04) and Miami (pitching coach with Gulf Coast and Florida State League affiliates, 1996-2001).

A native of Cuba, Rojas was a member of the Cuban National Team from 1982-1994 and ranks as the all-time leader in Cuban baseball with 342 career relief appearances and 90 saves. After coming to the United States he was selected by Miami in the 30th round of the 1995 MLB Draft (signing scout was former Tigers and Marlins executive, Dick Egan), and went on to pitch in the Marlins farm system for the 1995-96 seasons. He has also pitched on Olympic, World and Pan American championship teams.

GABE RIBAS

Director, Pitching

Entering his first season with the Tigers, Ribas is responsible for working across all departments within the club's baseball operations to implement a dynamic pitching program spanning the entire player development system.

Prior to his time with Detroit he held the title of Pitching Coordinator (Performance) with the Dodgers. With Los Angeles, Ribas worked across many areas within player development, including coaching staffs, performance science, strength and conditioning, baseball analytics and others to construct and maintain a highly individualized and comprehensive pitching development program.

Ribas also spent 11 seasons coaching in college baseball with stops at Bowdoin College, Northwestern University, The College of the Holy Cross, Northern Colorado University and Santa Clara University.

A graduate of Northwestern University, Ribas was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the 14th round of the 2002 amateur draft and was the organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2003, winning 17 games.

RYAN SIENKO

Director, Coaching and Field Coordinator

Sienko joins the Tigers as the coaching and field coordinator, where he coordinates the organization's on-field activity and all coaching initiatives.

He comes to Detroit after six seasons (2015-20) as a catching coordinator/assistant coordinator with the Dodgers. His responsibilities with Los Angeles included instilling catching philosophies at all levels of the club's player development system, maximizing the impact of receiving metrics, conducting drills and skill work with players, coordinating player plans, working with the research and development department and traveling to all affiliates.

Prior to his time with the Dodgers, Sienko was an associate scout for the Orioles from 2007-15 and from 2002-07 was the Director of Baseball Operations and instructor with the National Pitching Association. In 2005 he founded Catch & Throw, an organization with the mission of providing quality professional catching instruction to support the health and performance of catchers. Sienko also coached at the high school level, including at Torrey Pines High School and Canyon Crest Academy.

Sienko played collegiately at the University of Iowa, professionally in the Texas and Chicago (AL) systems, and was named an All-Star in independent baseball.

JEFF BRANSON

Hitting Coordinator

Branson enters his fourth season as a hitting coordinator with the Tigers. The 2022 campaign marks his 33rd in professional baseball.

Prior to joining the Tigers, he served as the Major League hitting coach with Pittsburgh for five seasons (2014-18) and as the assistant hitting coach in 2013. Before working with the big league club, Branson was the hitting coach with Triple A Indianapolis (2009-12), manager at Single A Lynchburg (2007-08), manager at Single A Hickory (2005-06) and manager at Single A Williamsport (2004). His first coaching assignment came in 2003, when he was the hitting coach at Williamsport.

He was originally selected by Cincinnati in the second round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft and played nine seasons in the Major Leagues. Over that span, he hit .246/.300/.372 with 34 home runs and 156 RBI in 694 career games between Cincinnati (1992-97), Cleveland (1997-98) and Los Angeles (NL) (2000-01).

The native of Waynesboro, MS, played baseball at Livingston (AL) University, and was named to the Converse Division II All-American Team as a junior in 1988. Additionally, he was a member of the 1988 United States baseball team that won a Gold Medal at the Olympic Games in Seoul, Korea.

MAX GORDON

Hitting Coordinator

Gordon joins the Tigers for his first coaching assignment in professional baseball, serving as one of the organization's hitting coordinators. He comes to Detroit after spending the last five years (2017-21) working at Driveline Baseball under the same title.

Prior to his time at Driveline, Gordon was a volunteer coach at the University of Michigan for the 2020 season. He also coached at Feather River College from 2014-16.

After being told he would never be able to play baseball again following a car crash that left him in a coma as a teenager, Gordon rehabbed and returned to the diamond at Oregon State University from 2011-13. Playing in 127 games with he Beavers he posted a combined .226 (64x283) batting average, drove in 20 runs and walked nearly as many times as he struck out (39/43).

STEVE SMITH

Pitching Coordinator

Smith enters his first season with the Tigers, serving as the pitching coordinator for the club's upper-level (double/triple A) affiliates. This post marks his first in professional baseball, following a distinguished career at the collegiate level. Most recently he was the head coach at Tennessee Tech for two seasons (2020-21).

Prior to his time at Tennessee Tech, Smith was the head coach at Baylor University for 21 seasons. His tenure with the Bears included leading the team to its most successful ten-year run in the program's history and a 2005 College World Series appearance. Among his many accomplishments at the university, Smith led the Bears to a 2005 College World Series appearance, was inducted into the Baylor Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006 and compiled a 744-523-1 career record. In the time between his head coaching positions at Baylor and Tennessee Tech he was the pitching coach at Auburn University (2018-19), where he helped develop Casey Mize into a consensus All-American, First Team All-SEC selection and No. 1 overall pick by the Tigers in the 2018 MLB Draft.

Other notable positions held during his career include: pitching coordinator for the 17U National Team Development Program (2019), president of the American Baseball Coaches Association (2008), head coach of the USA Baseball National Team (2005) and pitching coach for the USA Baseball National Team (1998).

Smith was a two-sport athlete (football and baseball) attending Mississippi College from 1979-80, before transferring to Baylor from 1982-83. While playing for the Bears, Smith led the Southwest Conference in ERA (1.72) in 1982 and went on to be selected by San Francisco in the fifth round of the 1983 MLB Draft. He spent four seasons pitching in the Giants organization, making his way up to triple A at the end of the 1986 season.

STEPHANOS STROOP

Pitching Coordinator

Stroop joins the Tigers for his first season, serving as a pitching coordinator for the organization's lower-level affiliates (Single A and Rookie Levels). He spent the last three seasons as a pitching coach in the lower-levels of the Los Angeles Dodgers player development system, with a focus on overseeing throwing programs/bullpen sessions, contributing to pitch design efforts and implementing game plans for individual players.

Before joining the Dodgers, he served as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator for Southern University and A&M College - Baton Rouge for one season (2018) after holding the same positions at St. Petersburg College in 2017.

Stroop also has player evaluation experience at the amateur level, spending three years as an associate scout including two with Atlanta (2014-16) and one with Washington (2014).

He was captain of the Claremont McKenna College baseball team in 2010, going on to play professionally for the Carlsbad Bats in 2011.

JORGE CORDOVA

Assistant Pitching Coordinator

Cordova begins his second season as Assistant Pitching Coordinator after serving as the pitching coach with numerous Tigers Minor League affiliates. This year marks his 17th overall as a coach in the organization.

Prior to his current position, Cordova served as the pitching coach at Single A Lakeland (2019-20, 2016), Single A West Michigan (2017-18) and Gulf Coast League Tigers (2014). He also spent four seasons as the pitching coach with the organization's affiliate in the New York-Penn League, serving one season with Single A Oneonta (2009) and three seasons with Single A Connecticut (2010-12).

He also has experience coaching with Detroit internationally, serving as the pitching coach with the Venezuelan Summer League Tigers during each of his first three seasons (2006-08) with the Tigers.

Cordova pitched for eight seasons at the Minor League level with the New York Yankees (1996), Florida Marlins (1998-2000), Cincinnati Reds (2000-02) and Tigers (2003-04). He compiled a 44-26 record and 3.30 ERA in 234 outings during his career.

BILLY BOYER

Infield Coordinator

Boyer enters his first season working with the organization's Minor League infielders, joining the Tigers after spending the 2019-20 seasons as the Minor League Infield and Baserunning Coordinator with Minnesota.

Before making the transition to coaching at the professional level, Boyer spent 11 seasons in college baseball assistant coach/hitting coach roles at institutions including: Seattle University (2018 - senior year of Tigers LHP Tarik Skubal), University of Washington (2016-17), Pierce College (2011-15), Green River Community College (2010) and Tacoma Community College (2009).

As a player, Boyer was drafted out of Enumclaw High School (WA) by the Los Angeles Angels in the 19th round of the 2003 MLB Draft. The infielder played 187 games during his three seasons in affiliated baseball (2003-05), slashing .244/.311/.373 with 30 doubles, 13 home runs and 78 RBI. He additionally played one season in an independent league, suiting up for the Joliet Jackhammers in 2006.

ANGEL BERROA

Latin America Infield Coordinator

Entering his first season with the Tigers, Berroa will serve as the infield coordinator focusing on instructing players in the organization from Latin America.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Berroa was a coach with Boston at the Gulf Coast League level.

Berroa had a successful playing career that spanned nine seasons in the Major Leagues. He won the American League Rookie of the Year Award in 2003 after posting a .287/.338/.451 slashline with 28 doubles, seven triples, 17 home runs, 73 RBI and 21 stolen bases with Kansas City. That season he accumulated a career high 2.5 bWAR. Following his time with the Royals (2001-07), Berroa also spent time with the Dodgers (2008), Yankees (2009) and Mets (2009) before retiring.

ARNIE BEYELER

Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator

Enters his third season with the organization and first as the Outfield and Baserunning Coordinator. This season marks his 31st as a manager, coach or scout, over which he has built a reputation for an innovative coaching style and implementation of technology.

Beyeler served as manager for Double A Erie and instructor at the club's alternate training site over the last two seasons, helping develop some of baseball's top prospects along the way. Last season he led the SeaWolves to a 64-55 record, while developing position players such as Dillon Dingler, Riley Greene (Tigers 2021 Minor League Player of the Year), Ryan Kreidler and Spencer Torkelson, and pitchers Beau Brieske (Tigers 2021 Minor League Pitcher of the Year) and Joey Wentz.

Prior to being named to his post with the SeaWolves, he was the Major League first base coach with the Baltimore Orioles for the 2019 season. Before his season with the Orioles, he was the manager of Triple A New Orleans in the Miami organization for three seasons (2016-18), posting a combined 193-223 record. From 2013-15 he was on the Major League staff with the Boston Red Sox.

He has managed or coached at every level from Single A to the Major Leagues, including stints in the following systems: Baltimore, Miami, Boston, San Diego, Texas and New York (AL). Highlights include winning the Governor's Cup with Triple A Pawtucket in 2012, and earning playoff appearances with Double A Portland in 2007-08 and Single A Stockton in 2003-04.

Beyeler was a Minor League infielder for six seasons in the Tigers system from 1986-91, reaching Triple A Toledo in his first professional campaign.

FRANCISCO RIVAS

Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

Rivas enters his second season as a Minor League strength and conditioning coordinator, and fourth overall in the organization.

Prior to this post, Rivas was slated to be the strength and conditioning coach with Short-Season Norwich, which wasn't possible due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Instead, he gained experience working with top prospects and Major League-caliber players at the club's alternate training site in Toledo during the 2020 season. His first position with the club was the strength and conditioning coach with the Gulf Coast League Tigers in 2019.

Before joining the Tigers, Rivas spent two years at XCEL Health and Wellness working in strength and conditioning, also serving as the head of baseball and softball development. He worked three years as a student strength and conditioning coach at Hannibal-LaGrange University (2015-17), and one as an intern with Diamond Fit Performance (2015).

Rivas has a master's degree in Kinesiology from A.T. Still University, with an emphasis in orthopedic and sport psychology. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist, USAW Performance Coach Level 1 and Precision Nutrition Coach Level 1.

RYAN MAEDEL

Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

Maedel enters his first season as a strength and conditioning coordinator, working out of the club's TigerTown Complex in Lakeland.

Prior to his coordinator position, Maedel spent the 2021 season as the strength and conditioning coach with Single A West Michigan. His first season with the Tigers was 2020, which was impacted as the Minor League season was canceled due to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Before his time with the Tigers, Maedel spent seven seasons in various roles throughout the Toronto system, and helped Single A Dunedin to be 2017 co-champions of the Florida State League.

Growing up in Ontario, Canada, he and his family are lifelong Tigers fans. Maedel played baseball during many of his school years, including all four years during his time in college in South Carolina and Florida.

BRIAN TAGGETT

Latin American Performance Coach

Entering his third season with the Tigers, Taggett returns as the Latin American performance coach. His responsibilities include assisting in the holistic development of Minor League players from Latin America.

Prior to this post, he served as the international player programs intern with the Tigers during the 2019 season.

Taggett played baseball at Emory University, and earned a double-major in Latin American/Caribbean studies and political science.

COREY TREMBLE

Minor League Medical and Rehabilitation Coordinator

Tremble returns for his 15th season with the Tigers organization in 2022, also marking his 10th as the Minor League medical and rehabilitation coordinator. Following the 2018 season, the organization named him the Dwight Lowry Player Development Person of the Year.

He served as the athletic trainer for the Gulf Coast League Tigers during the 2008 season, Single A West Michigan during the 2009 and 2010 seasons and Single A Lakeland during the 2011 and 2012 seasons. Additionally, he served as an athletic trainer with Surprise in the Arizona Fall League in 2010.

He graduated from Florida Southern College in 2005 and attended the University of South Florida for his graduate studies in exercise science from 2006-08, where he also served as a Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer.

Tremble is a certified and licensed athletic trainer, a muscle activation technique jumpstart specialist, and a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

He was the 2006 recipient of the Dr. Clarence Livingood Memorial Scholarship from the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society and currently sits on the PBATS Website and EMR Committees. Tremble resides in Lakeland, FL with his wife, Joanna.

LLOYD MCCLENDON

Toledo Manager

McClendon, a longtime coach in the Tigers organization and former Major League manager, rejoins the organization as the skipper for Triple A Toledo. This season marks his 40th in professional baseball.

"Legendary Lloyd" most recently served as a member of Detroit's Major League coaching staff during the 2017-20 seasons, including three seasons as the hitting coach (2017-19) and one as the club's bench coach (2020). Following the late-season retirement of then-manager Ron Gardenhire, McClendon served as the interim manager of the Tigers for eight games to close out the 2020 campaign. He first joined the Major League staff for the 2006 season, serving as the hitting coach from 2007-13.

A decorated baseball man, McClendon has managed 1,114 Major League games, largely between permanent managerial posts in Pittsburgh (2001-05) and Seattle (2014-15). He also has experience managing in the Minor Leagues, coming from his first stint with the MudHens in 2016. He began his coaching career as the Pirates roving Minor League hitting instructor in 1996, and spent the next four seasons (1997-2000) as the club's Major League hitting coach.

His playing career spanned 16 seasons (1980-95) after he was selected in the eighth round of the June 1980 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the New York Mets. He saw action at the Major League level with the Cincinnati Reds (1987-88), Chicago Cubs (1989-90) and Pirates (1990-94). He graduated from Roosevelt High School in Indiana in 1977, where he was an All-State selection in baseball, and went on to play baseball at Valparaiso University. McClendon participated in the 1971 Little League World Series and earned the nickname "Legendary Lloyd" after hitting five home runs in five swings and drawing five intentional walks for his Gary, IN team.

TONY CAPPUCCILLI

Toledo Bench Coach

Cappuccilli joins the Tigers for his first season, serving as the bench coach for Triple A Toledo.

He managed in the Arizona Complex League in 2021, and before that he spent three years in other coaching positions with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization. Prior to his time with the Dodgers, he spent three years at the University of New Mexico, one year at UNLV, four years at Irvine Valley College. He also coached collegiate summer ball in the Cape Cod League with the Brewster Whitecaps and managed four summers with the Anchorage Bucs in the Alaska baseball league.

Cappuccilli played college ball at the University of Nevada, got his master's degree at Concordia University, began coaching at the high school level in 2004 and has held coaching jobs every year since.

Currently, Cappuccilli resides in the Phoenix area with his wife, Katie, and their French bulldogs, Sophie and Simon.

DOUG BOCHTLER

Toledo Pitching Coach

Entering his third season with the Tigers, Bochtler returns as the pitching coach at Triple A Toledo.

Before joining Detroit's player development staff, he worked in the San Diego Padres organization for five seasons. Bochtler was scheduled to serve as the pitching coach for Single A Lake Elsinore in 2020 before the Minor League season was canceled due to COVID-19.

Prior to 2020, Bochtler was the Major League bullpen coach for the Padres from 2016-19. In 2018, the Padres bullpen had the most innings pitched (635.0), strikeouts (720), highest SO/9 IP (10.20) and highest SO/BB ratio (3.48) of any relief group in club history. Their 2.93 BB/9 IP and 1.19 WHIP both led the National League and ranked third in the Majors, while their 3.54 ERA was third in the NL and sixth in the Majors.

Prior to joining the Padres, Bochtler spent five seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks organization, serving as pitching coach for Single A Yakima in 2011-12, Single A Missoula in 2013, Single A South Bend in 2014 and Single A Kane County in 2015.

Originally selected by Montreal in the ninth round of the 1989 MLB Draft, Bochtler played six seasons in the Majors, including the 1998 season with Detroit, when he pitched in 51 games.

ADAM MELHUSE

Toledo Hitting Coach

Returning to the organization for his third season, and first with Triple A Toledo, Melhuse will serve as the hitting coach for the Mud Hens. Last season he served the same role with Double A Erie.

Prior to joining the Tigers he was a hitting coach in the Los Angeles (NL) organization, spending the 2019 season with Double A Tulsa and 2018 with Triple A Oklahoma City. He also was the manager of Single A Burlington in the Los Angeles (AL) system for two seasons (2016-17).

Before transitioning to coaching he spent four seasons as an advanced scout for Chicago (NL), which followed an eight-year Major League playing career. Over 311 career games, Melhuse hit .234/.290/.389 with 24 home runs and 98 RBI, spending time with Los Angeles (NL) (2000), Colorado (2000-01, 2008), Oakland (2003-07) and Texas (2007-08).

GABE ALVAREZ

Erie Manager

Alvarez enters the Tigers organization for his first season, serving as the manager at Double A Erie. The position marks his first managerial post and first time on a coaching staff in affiliated baseball.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Alvarez spent 11 seasons on the coaching staff at the University of Southern California in a variety of roles, including assistant coach, hitting coach and recruiting coordinator. Some accolades during his time recruiting with the Trojans includes compiling the No. 14 recruiting class in the country in 2018 (per Baseball America) and being named one of the nation's top 30 recruiters in 2016.

Under his guidance, Alvarez helped led USC to have at least a .973 fielding percentage in eight of his last 10 seasons. During the pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign, and his first season as hitting coach, the Trojans batted .281 as a team, 63 points higher than any of their opponents.

After competing as a student athlete at USC from 1993-95, Alvarez was selected by San Diego in the second round of the 1995 MLB Draft. Three years later, he made his big league debut with Detroit before being traded back to the Padres in 2000. He played a total of 92 Major League games in his career, slashing .222/.289/.357.

DAN RICABAL

Erie Pitching Coach

Joining the Tigers organization for his first season, Ricabal will serve as the pitching coach with Double A Erie in 2022.

Prior to signing on with Detroit, Ricabal worked in the collegiate ranks for 10 seasons (2012-21), including roles with California State University - Fullerton (pitching coach), California State University - Long Beach (pitching coach) and Loyola Marymount University (pitching coach/recruiting coordinator).

He also has prior experience coaching at the professional level, serving as a Minor League pitching coach with the Anaheim Angels for six years (2006-11), where he led pitching staffs to six-straight postseason appearances, including the Midwest League record for least walks in a season by a pitching staff with Single A Cedar Rapids in 2007.

JOHN MURRIAN

Erie Hitting Coach

Murrian joins the Erie staff as hitting coach in 2022, after serving in the same role with Single A Lakeland in 2021 and Single A West Michigan two years ago. Prior to his time in West Michigan, Murrian made his coaching debut in the same role with GCL Tigers West in 2019. Before transitioning to coaching, Murrian spent five seasons as a Major League bullpen catcher with the Tigers.

Before assuming the role of bullpen catcher he played five seasons at the Minor League level with the organization, hitting .243/.301/.381 with 20 home runs and 116 RBI. His primary position was catcher, where he maintained a 33 percent caught stealing rate over the course of his time behind the plate.

He attended Winthrop University, where he batted .327 (67x205) with 42 runs scored, 19 doubles, a triple, six home runs and 42 RBI in 59 games as a junior.

OLLIE KADEY

Erie Developmental Coach

Returning to the Tigers for his second season coaching in affiliated baseball, Kadey will serve as the developmental coach with Double A Erie after holding the same position for Single A Lakeland in 2021.

Prior to joining the Tigers, he worked as the analytics manager at Texas Baseball Ranch (2015-19). In that role he worked with numerous current Major League players and prospects to aid their arm strength development, command and secondary pitches.

Kadey played collegiately at Missouri Western State University from 2010-13 and studied finance. Over the course of his career with the Griffons he established a school record for complete game shutouts.

BRAYAN PEÑA

West Michigan Manager

Peña returns to lead the staff at Single A West Michigan in 2022, his second year as the manager for the club. Prior to his start in West Michigan last season, Peña managed Single A Connecticut to a 34-42 record in 2019.

He began his coaching career in 2018, leading the Gulf Coast League Tigers West to a league championship and a 37-16 record. Under his tutelage, the Tigers West squad batted at a .277 (292x1670) clip, belting 40 home runs and 257 RBI, and posted a 3.06 ERA (435.0IP/148ER) with 502 strikeouts.

His transition to coaching came after Spring Training of 2018, closing the door on an impressive 12-year Major League career as a catcher, playing for five big league teams, including Atlanta (2005-08), Kansas City (2009-12), Detroit (2013), Cincinnati (2014-15) and St. Louis (2016). He hit .259/.299/.351 in his career, knocking 23 home runs and driving in 164 runs.

DEAN STILES

West Michigan Pitching Coach

Stiles comes to the Tigers after managing the Pioneer League's Ogden Raptors during the 2021 campaign, leading the club to a playoff appearance, winning the Southern Division's first half, and establishing a new league record winning streak.

Prior to his season with the Raptors he served two seasons (2019-20) as a pitching coach in the Dodgers organization, including at extended Spring Training and with Single A Ogden. Stiles also spent nine years in various coaching and administrative roles at the University of Oregon, Florida International University and San Jose State University.

Among a variety of different roles before his time with division one programs, Stiles spent time on the staff with Single A Eugene, Lane Community College and various Oregon and California high schools.

After graduating from the University of Oregon with a bachelor's degree in journalism in 1982, Stiles spent 25 years as a high school journalism instructor and athletic administrator.

CJ WAMSLEY

West Michigan Hitting Coach

Entering his third season with the Tigers and first with Single A West Michigan, Wamsley will serve as the hitting coach with the Whitecaps. Last season, he served as the developmental coach in Triple A Toledo.

Prior to joining the Tigers he was an assistant coach on the staff at Ohio University for five seasons (2015-19), following a three-year stint with Troy University where he worked with the club's catchers, outfielders and hitters. His division one coaching career began at Morehead State University, where he was an assistant coach.

Wamsley was a four-year letterwinner at Western Kentucky University, where he played on the baseball team. Over his 68-game college career he batted .299/.379/.421.

NICK BREDESON

West Michigan Developmental Coach

Bredeson joins the organization after spending last year at Belmont University as a volunteer assistant coach.

Prior to his time with the Bruins, Bredeson spent eight years at Ohio University as both an assistant coach and student-athlete. From 2013-17 he was the starting catcher for the Bobcats. His time on the team includes the 2015 season, in which the team won the Mid-American Conference tournament championship and earned an appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

The Bloomfield Hills, MI native then continued at his alma mater as an assistant coach for four years after graduating in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in sport management and a graduate degree in coaching education.

ANDREW GRAHAM

Lakeland Manager

Graham returns as the manager in Single A Lakeland in 2022, his third year leading the Flying Tigers. Additional posts with the Tigers include manager at Double A Erie in 2018 and three seasons as manager at Single A West Michigan (2014-16). This campaign marks his 12th with the Tigers organization.

In 2016, the Whitecaps advanced to the Midwest League Eastern Division Championship Series after posting a 71-65 record, finishing third in the Eastern Division. Prior to that he guided the Whitecaps to a Midwest League championship in 2015. In his first season as manager at West Michigan, he led the Whitecaps to their first playoff berth since 2010. He previously served three seasons as manager at Single A Connecticut (2011-13).

He served as a coach with the Gulf Coast League Tigers in both 2009 and 2010, in addition to serving as the organization's Minor League catching coordinator in 2010.

Selected by the Tigers in the 19th round of the 2003 MLB First-Year Player Draft, he spent six seasons (2003-08) in the club's Minor League system as a catcher. Graham saw action with Australia during the World Baseball Classic in both 2006 and 2009. He batted .364 (4x11) with three RBI in three games for Australia in 2009. He served as a coach for Australia in the 2017 World Baseball Classic, and is currently the team's third base/bench coach.

JUAN PIMENTEL

Lakeland Pitching Coach

Pimentel joins the organization for his first season, taking over as the pitching coach with Single A Lakeland. Before joining the Flying Tigers, he undertook his first coaching position in professional baseball as a co-pitching coach with the Dominican Summer League affiliate of the Seattle Mariners.

A native of the Dominican Republic, Pimentel played collegiately at Indian River State College and the University of Central Florida, graduating in the spring of 2017. He then returned to Indian River State as a pitching coach before taking on the same role at the University of Delaware for two years before his role with the Mariners.

FRANCISCO CONTRERAS

Lakeland Hitting Coach

Contreras enters his sixth season in the organization as a coach, and his first as the hitting coach with Single A Lakeland. Prior to this position he served two seasons as the Latin American Hitting Coordinator, two seasons as a coach with Single A Lakeland, and one season as the hitting coach with GCL Tigers West - the latter of which was his first full-time coaching role since finishing his playing career.

He spent the 2016 season as a player-coach for Single A Connecticut, and played six seasons in the Tigers Minor League system, spending four years with the Dominican Summer League Tigers (2010-14) and two years with West Michigan (2014-15). He batted .231/.300/.318 over 377 career games in the Tigers system.

The Santo Domingo, DR native was originally signed by the Tigers as a non-drafted free agent on October 22, 2009.

MATT MALOTT

Lakeland Developmental Coach

Malott begins his first year in the organization after spending the past year and a half as the player development coach and owner of Objective Baseball, LLC.

Prior to that position, he was a player development coach with the Kansas City Royals, which was then interrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Before and during his time in professional baseball, he worked as the varsity pitching coach at Canyon Crest Academy in San Diego since August, 2015.

He played collegiately at Occidental College, where he was a starting pitcher.

MIKE ALVAREZ

Gulf Coast League Tigers Manager

Alvarez returns for his sixth season with the Tigers and first as the manager of the Gulf Coast League Tigers. This season will mark his first as a manager during his time in affiliated baseball. Prior to this post, he served as the pitching coach for FCL Tigers West.

He previously spent 19 seasons in the Atlanta Braves organization, most recently as the pitching coach of Triple A Gwinnett after being named to the position in May of 2016.

Alvarez spent time as a pitching coach, roving pitching instructor and pitching supervisor in the Braves organization from 1998-2016. Additionally, he spent three seasons (2012-15) as the pitching supervisor for the Dominican Summer League Braves. Alvarez also held the pitching coach post with Double A Mississippi from 2011-12 and Triple A Richmond in 2005.

Following his playing career as a Minor League pitcher with the Baltimore Orioles (1980-81) and Kansas City Royals (1981-84), Alvarez spent 13 years as a Minor League pitching coach with the Royals from (1985-97), including five years with the club's Triple A team, the Omaha Royals.

TIM GARLAND

Gulf Coast League Tigers Bench Coach

Garland returns for his sixth season in the Tigers organization, and his second on the staff of the Gulf Coast League Tigers. Prior to this post, he served three seasons as the hitting coach at Single A Lakeland. Following the 2018 season, Garland was named the Dwight Lowry Player Development Person of the Year.

Before joining the Tigers, Garland was a developmental specialist for one season with Single A Quad Cities in the Houston Astros organization in 2015. In his position as developmental specialist, he focused on the development of the River Bandits outfielders, as well as baserunning for all the players on the club.

Prior to his position as the developmental specialist, he spent two seasons as the hitting coach at Double A Corpus Christi, also in the Astros organization.

Before joining the Astros, Garland served as hitting coach for Double A Midland of the Oakland Athletics organization for two seasons (2011-12). He made his coaching debut in 2006 with Class A Kane County, later serving as hitting coach at Single A Stockton from 2007-10.

He was originally drafted by the New York Yankees in the 1989 MLB Draft out of Pensacola Junior College, owning a career .277 batting average in 734 career Minor League games, over which he also stole 213 bases. In addition to the Yankees system, he spent time in the Giants, Orioles and Athletics organizations.

GABE LUCKERT

Gulf Coast League Tigers Pitching Coach

Luckert joins the Tigers for his first season, serving as the Gulf Coast League pitching coach in 2022.

His coaching experience dates back to 1998, when he first transitioned into being an instructor. That journey includes significant time as a Minor League pitching coach with San Francisco (1998-2000), Atlanta (2001-2016), New York (AL) (2017-20) and Milwaukee (2021). Luckert's experience ranges from coaching in the Dominican Academies through stints at the Double A level. He also coached in winter leagues, including most recently with the Chiriqui Federals during the 2021-22 Panama Winter League season.

RAFAEL GIL

Gulf Coast League Tigers Hitting Coach

Gil returns as a hitting coach with the Gulf Coast League Tigers for his fifth season. This season will mark his 12th with the Tigers organization.

He was the manager of the Gulf Coast League Tigers East and West in 2016 and 2017, respectively, and previously served as manager of the Venezuelan Summer League Tigers for five seasons (2011-15).

He guided the VSL Tigers to a Venezuelan Summer League Championship in both 2014 and 2015. His stint as the manager of the Venezuelan Summer League Tigers marked his first professional managing or coaching assignment.

Originally signed by the Boston Red Sox as a non-drafted free agent on July 22, 2003, he spent five seasons with the organization as a catcher. He saw action with Single A Lowell in the New York-Penn League during his final season in 2008.

MARCO YEPEZ

DSL Tigers1 Manager

Yepez returns as the manager of the DSL Tigers2 for his fourth season leading one of the DSL Tigers teams, after working as a hitting coach in 2018. He previously was manager of DSL Tigers in 2017 as well.

Prior to joining the organization he was the third base coach on the Leones del Caracas coaching staff of the Venezuelan Winter League in 2016.

Yepez spent eight total seasons in the Minor Leagues in the Florida Marlins (2002), Montreal Expos (2003-04) and Washington Nationals (2005-09) organizations. He batted .268/.347/.356 over 649 games during his Minor League career.

In addition to playing abroad in Venezuela, the former infielder also played in the professional baseball leagues in Colombia, Nicaragua and Italy, where he concluded his playing career in 2012 after three seasons.

The Caracas, VZ native was originally signed by Florida as a non-drafted free agent in 2009.

SPRING TRAINING

PUBLIX FIELD AT JOKER MARCHANT STADIUM
TIGERTOWN SPRING TRAINING IN LAKELAND, FLORIDA

FACTS AND FIGURES

Stadium Location: 2301 Lakeland Hills Blvd., Lakeland, FL 33805

Seating Capacity: 9,598

First Game: March 12, 1966 vs. Minnesota Twins

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2022 for their 86th season in Lakeland, and their 57th at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In July 2014, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 20 additional years, ensuring their winter home remains in Lakeland for an unprecedented 100 years, through 2036.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100, and was recently upped again to more than 9,500. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972, and a food/picnic court that was added in 1994 to enhance the fan experience.

Thanks to the support of the City of Lakeland, Polk County, the State of Florida and Publix, Joker Marchant Stadium underwent significant renovations prior to the 2017 season, improving training facilities for players, meeting space for the coaching staff and the gameday experience for fans.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a Major League team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium is 440-357-32 and 4,401,827 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

COMERICA PARK

COMERICA PARK
HOME OF THE DETROIT TIGERS

FACTS AND FIGURES

Location: 2100 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, MI, 48201

Seating Capacity: 41,083

First Game: April 11, 2000 vs. Seattle Mariners

Playing Field Fences: All outfield fences are eight feet, six inches, except for the left field fence, which measures at six feet, 10 inches high and a 100-foot section in right field which measures 11 feet, six inches high.

Area: The ballpark itself encompasses over 788,000 square feet. Including the outbuildings, the total square footage is over one million.

Lighting: Comerica Park contains 16 light towers, each standing five stories tall and containing a total of 840 light fixtures. When lit, the system emits approximately 1.2 million watts.

Dugouts: Connected to clubhouses by tunnels. Visitors on first base side, home on third base side.

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the most storied franchises in Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit, featuring a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind, and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for visitors of all ages.

THE DISTRICT DETROIT

The District Detroit is a dynamic sports & entertainment destination, and a growing community gathering place, that connects downtown Detroit to nearby neighborhoods such as Midtown, Corktown and Brush Park. The corridor is anchored by the innovative Little Caesars Arena, home of the Detroit Red Wings and Detroit Pistons, and Comerica Park, home of the Detroit Tigers. The Detroit Lions' Ford Field borders Comerica Park, completing a short boundary with all four professional sports teams located within walking distance, and in the heart of the district. Columbia Street, located between the iconic Fox Theatre and the Little Caesars Global Resource Center along Woodward Avenue, is one of Detroit's latest retail destinations, with nearly 40,000 square feet of retail and a variety of dining options. New office, residential and retail spaces will continue to add momentum to Detroit's amazing comeback for years to come.

THE CONCOURSES

Comerica Park's concourses are among the most generous of any sporting venue. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, though it becomes wider in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

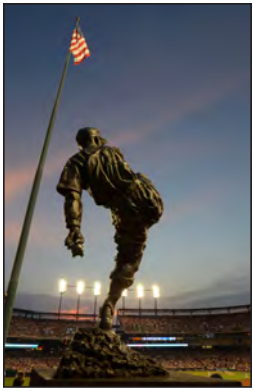

Fans are treated to a tour through the rich history of Detroit Tigers baseball as they walk through the main concourse at Comerica Park. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history, complete with artifacts and exhibits. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring rich memories from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT
Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the Brushfire Grill behind third base and the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court behind first base, each featuring a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies. Comerica Park is a cashless facility. Guests may remit cash for a prepaid debit card at Comerica Bank Cash2Card machines located throughout the ballpark.

MOBILE WALLET
As part of the Comerica Bank Park Perks program, Comerica Bank customers who upload their debit or credit card to the Comerica Bank Mobile Wallet located in the MLB Ballpark App will receive a $25 credit towards their order-ahead or in-seat delivery purchase! Please note: in-seat delivery is only accessible for Tiger Den and On-Deck Circle seat locations.

THE SCOREBOARD
One of the most stunning features at Comerica Park is the high definition LED video board in left field. The Daktronics board measures approximately 48 feet high and 127 feet wide, and utilizes the latest in LED technology to offer excellent clarity and contrast of video images. In addition to the main board, a five-foot high and 100-foot wide LED display is positioned beneath the main board to provide pitcher statistics and other information. The state-of-the-art technology continues on top of the board with a script Tigers logo that utilizes LED technology, allowing the lettering to change color and be animated for special events throughout the season.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT
In the middle of the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court, the Comerica Park Carousel is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Also, the Fly Ball Ferris Wheel, a baseball-themed ferris wheel, is located in the Brushfire Grill. The stunning Chevrolet Fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water. Beginning in 2022, rides will be cashless.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES
There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park, and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 12,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line, there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower, and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS
Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

EXTENDED PROTECTIVE NETTING
Installed prior to the 2018 season, Comerica Park features a new and enhanced protective netting system, which extends from sections 140 to 116. The enhanced netting covers a much greater area than previously and is some of the thinnest in baseball, reflecting the organization's commitment to providing a fan-friendly, safe and enjoyable experience at a Tigers game.

COMERICA PARK STATUES
Comerica Park features larger-than-life sculptures of six Tigers legends, which overlook the field from the left field concourse. The sculptures feature Ty Cobb, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton, Al Kaline and Hal Newhouser. They were designed by sculptor Omri Amrany, and were cast in stainless steel. Gate A features a sculpture of Hall of Fame broadcaster Ernie Harwell, greeting fans as they enter Comerica Park.

MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL TIGER CLUB
The MotorCity Casino Hotel Tiger Club features approximately 20,000 square feet of entertainment space. There is seating for 300 patrons with a view of right field, a bar for 200, the Cigar Bar and a banquet facility.

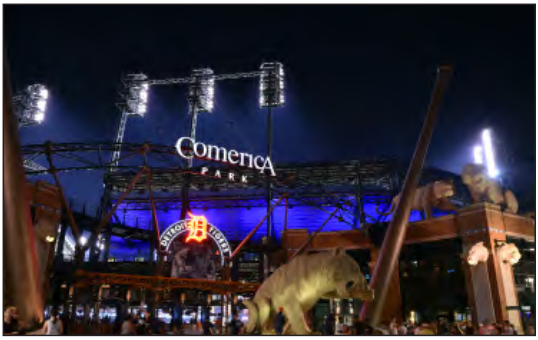

JIM BEAM CHAMPIONS CLUB
The Jim Beam Champions Club combines the perks of luxury seating with an open and relaxed lounge atmosphere. The Jim Beam Champions Club opened in 2006 and is located on the suite level down the left field line.

LITLE CAESARS PARTY SUITES
The Little Caesars Party Suites debuted in 2021 and are located at suites 250 & 251. Combined, the suites can hold up to 70 guests and provide an immersive look into the combined histories of Little Caesars Pizza, the Detroit Tigers and Detroit as a city. Beginning in 2022, single game leases of the Little Caesars Party Suites will include exclusive menu offerings. Contact us at 313-471-2260 to learn more!

THE PEPSI PORCH
Prior to the 2014 season, the Pepsi Porch underwent an extensive renovation, including the addition of the Coppercraft Distillery 416 bar, featuring a unique social setting with a relaxed outdoor environment. Fans in this area can sit comfortably in high-end outdoor furniture, with a nearby fire feature, big flat screen TVs, and enjoy a ballgame.

THE CHEVROLET PAVILION
The Chevrolet Pavilion features 1,800 square feet of entertainment space under the scoreboard in left field, near the Gallagher Entry. It offers a variety of food, beverage and bar options. The Chevrolet Pavilion provides a relaxing atmosphere with excellent views of the field, and multiple TVs to catch the action.

MILLER LITE PITCHER'S PUB
The Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub is open to the public and located on the Pepsi Porch in right field. Boasting a fun and relaxed atmosphere, flat screen TVs, and decor celebrating Detroit Tigers pitchers past and present, this is a great destination for a bite to eat and a beverage.

BLUE MOON BREWHOUSE
Located behind section 330, the Blue Moon Brew House delivers features such as lounge seating, private restrooms, and excellent food and beverage offerings. This upper deck lounge is air conditioned, heated and open to the public.

MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL OFF-RAMP BAR
The MotorCity Casino Hotel Off-Ramp Bar features an over 50-foot bar with various beer selections on tap and nine large screens, creating the ultimate viewing experience of the scoreboard feed during the game and inning breaks. Located next to the Big Cat Court, the bar is also accessible from all levels via ramp.

THE VIZZY HARD SELTZER VIEW
Located above the Pitcher's Pub in right field, the Vizzy Hard Seltzer View offers a panoramic view of Comerica Park and is open to the public, but is available for groups to purchase.

MILLER LITE MARKET & BLUE MOON BISTRO
The Miller Lite Market & Blue Moon Bistro across from the Chevrolet Pavilion are the best spots to quickly grab food or beverage throughout the game.

GATED ENTRANCES
There are four gated entrances to Comerica Park, each featuring attractions on a grand scale. Among the features are immense 80-foot high baseball bats framing the gates, tiger sculptures and Pewabic tile accents.

MOBILE-ONLY ENTRY
Comerica Park employs mobile ticketing as the primary method of entry for all games at the ballpark. Tigers fans can enter the ballpark utilizing the easy-to-use Major League Baseball Ballpark App, which has emerged as the preeminent application for buying, selling or transferring baseball tickets across MLB. Further, in cooperation with our partners at StubHub, fans also have the option to use the StubHub App to enter the ballpark.

FANTASTIC FIREWORKS
Not only is Comerica Park known for explosive action on the field, but also in the skies above. Beginning shortly after the park opened in 2000, fantastic fireworks displays have been held on select Fridays throughout the season, adding unrivaled value and fun to an already exciting atmosphere.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS
Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park. Comerica Park has also partnered with Kulture City to provide sensory-friendly amenities and accessories which are available to fans at the Guest Services Office at Section 130.

THE TEAM
The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited, Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

2012 World Series

MOMENTS IN COMERICA PARK HISTORY

Comerica Park is entering its 22nd season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Over two decades, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth All-Star game in Detroit, and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League, 7-5, behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a then-Major League record, belting 24 home runs in the first round, and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first postseason game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees, 6-0, and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDOÑEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordoñez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street offering into the Detroit sky for a game-ending, three-run home run, propelling the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL AT COMERICA PARK

The Tigers have appeared in the World Series twice since Comerica Park opened in 2000. The Tigers split two games with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2006 World Series, and lost both games to the San Francisco Giants in the 2012 World Series at Comerica Park.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007, in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park, and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952, at Briggs Stadium.
